Mass in London Recalls Defense of Malta

London (NC) The outstanding part played by Malta, the British island in the Mediterranean and one of the most Catholic areas in the world, during World War II came back to mind when her first metropolitan Archbishop, the Most Rev. Michael Gonsi, celebrated High Mass in Westminster Cathedral here in observance of Our Lady's birthday and of Malta's national holiday.

It was on this day 300 years ago that the Maltese under their commander La Valetta drove back to the sea the Turkish forces who had beleaguered the island for four months. Archbishop Gonsi, who offered thanks for that far-off deliverance, was himself the hero of the more recent and more severe 30-month's siege during which he risked his life at least once a week when he crossed from the island of Malta to the neighboring island of Gozo.

Declaring that the present Warsaw regime of Poland is Soviet-controlled, the Rochester Polish leaders state:

"We, as American citizens, protest the proposed foisting of Oskar Lange on the United States as an alleged ambassador from the Republic of Poland. His apparent willingness to renounce American citizenship in order to serve Stalin should preclude him from such service in the country he is renouncing."

The protest concludes with a commendation to Secretary Byrnes for his strong stand against Soviet demands in the recent Council of Foreign Ministers in London.

Signers of the message to Mr. Byrnes included: Rochester Polish Relief Committee Chapter 59, National Committee of Americans of Polish Descent, Inc., and Rochester Council No. 27 of the Polish National Alliance.
