

SODALTALK

The Sodality Union wishes to express appreciation for the hospitality of the priests of St. Michael's parish, the Reverend Fathers Arthur F. Flareck, Francis A. Klechhammer and Jerome Schifferl, at the recent Union meeting there.

Officers for the coming year were installed at this meeting, the first of the Social year. Mental Prayer and a discussion of the Sodality in high school were offered on the program.

Parish Shorts

St. Augustine's Sodality is having a bazaar Friday, Oct. 19. The affair will be held in the parish hall, 418 Child Ave. . . . Watch for the hay left party that St. Boniface sodalists will hold in the near future . . . The Sodality group at St. Andrew's is re-organizing the parish paper and the first edition will be out Sunday, Oct. 21.

Good Samaritan Missing As Man Meets Robbers

Jerusalem — (NC) — Man- kind has changed little since the time of Christ. A local daily newspaper reports that a young man who was going up from Jericho to Jerusalem fell among thieves and was robbed. Our Lord's parable speaks of the young man who "was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho" and who "fell in with robbers. . . ." The modern version in the local paper does not speak of a good Samaritan.

Mass at St. Charles For Parish Founder

A Solemn High 7th Day Mass will be offered on Friday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Charles Borromeo Church, Rochester, for the Rev. John M. Sellinger who founded the parish in 1823. Father Sellinger died suddenly last Friday morning at Craig Colony where he served as Chaplain.

Celebrant of the 7th Day Mass at St. Charles Church will be the Rev. Robert A. Keisler, pastor, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Magr. George V. Burns as deacon and the Rev. Francis M. Feehey as subdeacon.

Parishioners and friends of Father Sellinger will attend and children of St. Charles School will sing the Mass.

G. H. Shaw to Receive Lactare Medal Monday

Washington — (NC) — G. Howard Shaw, former Assistant Secretary of State and outstanding Catholic layman, will be presented with the 1945 Lactare Medal at ceremonies in St. Patrick's Auditorium here on Monday, October 22.

Mr. Shaw was awarded the Lactare Medal for his work concerning the problem of juvenile delinquency. The Lactare Medal is awarded annually by the University of Notre Dame on Lactare Sunday to a Catholic layman making an outstanding contribution to the Church and the nation.

The only brother of Joan Carroll, Catholic schoolgirl actress who has an important role in "The Bells of St. Mary's," is now at the Jesuit Seminary, Las Gatos. He lost an eye but con-
