Bishop to Speak At Newman Rites

Nazareth College will celebrate the Cardinal Newman Centenary with a special program in the college auditorium Friday evening, October 19, at eight o'clock. The Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., will deliver the address and music will be furnished by the Nazareth College Schola.

An invitation is extended to all to hear His Excellency, Bishop Kearney speak on the life and works of one of the greatest Catholic scholars and leaders of all times.

The program will begin with the singing of "Lead Kindly Light" by the students. Miss Helen Murrer of the Senior class will then recite the poem, "Newman" by Rev. John Daley, S. J. The principal address of the evening by His Excellency, the Bishop, will follow. A hymn sung by the Schola will close the program. A reception will be held for those interested in further discussion.

Marion Maul and Mary Lombardo are co-chairmen of the event under the sponsorship of the Literary Club.
