

CYA LEADERS HAIL 175 PERCENT

The NCCS Canteen Review

By The Observer

Sunday, Oct. 21—The Ladies of the Rosary Society of Holy Apostles Church had 61 boys to serve Sunday morning, with the usual menu—fruit juice, bacon and eggs, toast, jelly and coffee — which has proved so popular. Mrs. Therese Boes led a pleasant, energetic committee.

Our musical program was quite varied. The feature attraction was a repeat performance by Herb Kern. Herb, you know, is an excellent dance caller, and really can inject a lot of pep into our dancers. He directs both round and square dancing with plenty of variations, and was extremely well-received by the boys. He brought along to assist him Mr. and Mrs. Huntman, violinist and pianist respectively, and John May, who made with the bass fiddle, so that the boys and girls had the right kind of dance music to accompany Herb's instruction. We greatly enjoy Herb's visits, and we hope his assistants this time come again, too.

We also had a trio performance of "Sentimental Journey." Ray Nary, with the collaboration of Helen O'Neill and Viola Stoughton, presented a very good rendition of the popular tune. Ray also sang a few numbers, as did "Butch," otherwise known as Ray Nary Jr., who sings for us frequently. The boys really go for Butch's songs, too — it probably reminds them of their little brothers at home, aside from the fact that he does a nice singing job. Mrs. Nary, who was assisting behind the counter in the Breakfast Room, accompanied them on the piano.

One tall, very nice-looking Canadian soldier was lavish with his praise of the canteen. "To place," he said, had he ever struck anything like our setup. Makes a fellow feel pretty good, he went on, to wake up on a Sunday morning — usually a blank spot as far as entertainment goes — and find a good appetizing meal, with pleasant company and surroundings to enhance the cooking. It makes the canteen sponsors feel pretty good, too, to be able to give it to them.
