Asks Papal Charity Aid

Chicago — (NC) — "We have never known the pang of hunger nor the agony of homelessness," Archbishop Samuel A. Stritch said in an appeal to the Catholics of Chicago for contributions to the annual Peter Pence collection. "We must help our Holy Father do immense charity," the Prelate wrote. "Let us, therefore, in Catholic charity, give until it hurts. God has been very good to us. Our cities, churches and institutions are intact."

Asks Palestine Shrine Rule

Chicago — (RNS) — A request that all Jewish, Arabian and Christian religious shrines in Palestine be placed under the jurisdiction of their own religious leadership through the United Nations organization has been sent to President Truman by the official American representative of the Latin Patriarch (Roman Catholic) of Palestine.

The representative, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael Abraham Assemani of Michigan City, Ind., also sent a similar letter to Secretary of State Byrnes.

Msgr. Assemani said that at present the Arabs have control of nearly all Christian and Jewish sacred places. All Jewish shrines including the "wailing wall," he urged should be placed under Jewish religious jurisdiction and all places sacred to the followers of Christ given to Christians. He added that all Arabian religious centers including the historic Mosque of Omar should remain under Arabian jurisdiction.

Sara Maynard Dies, Children's Author

Westminster, Md. — (NC) — Sara Maynard, Catholic writer, author of several children's books and wife of Theodore Maynard, author and educator, died at her home here Monday.

Of Irish ancestry, Mrs. Maynard was born in Cape Colony, South Africa. Her books for children are "Princess Poverty," a life of St. Francis of Assisi; "Here Come the Penguins," "Rose of America," and "Scott and His Men." Before she died she had completed a life of St. Elizabeth of Hungary.

Mrs. Maynard was a member of the Third Order of St. Francis. Her husband, a convert, whom she married in 1918, is widely known as a lecturer and author of more than 20 books, and is professor of English Literature at Mount St. Mary's College here. Also surviving are seven children, and a brother, W. F. Casey, Irish dramatist and novelist and an editor of The Times of London.
