

London — (NC) — The privilege of voting by proxy in British Parliamentary elections should be extended to those who have taken vows of accluzion, Lt. Col. F.M.C. Birch, Conservative member, suggested in the House of Commons here during debate on a new electoral reform bill.

Diocesan NCCW Sponsors Christmas Crib at Depot

A Christmas Crib in the New York Central Station calling attention of travelers to the significance of the Christmas season will again be sponsored by the Rochester Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women. It is announced at the Columbus Civic Center headquarters in Rochester, today. Erection of the Crib has been made possible through the Council's Moderator, the Rev. Albert J. Shamon and with the cooperation of the Rt. Rev. J. F. Guggin, rector of St. Bernard's Seminary, the Rev. Leo S. Mooney, pastor of Rochester's St. Patrick's Church and others. The Council has extended its thanks to all cooperating. The NCCW Council has also joined with the Council of Church Women in arranging for a Christmas musical program at train time during the holiday season and featuring the widely known organist, Tom Grierson. This was made possible through a generous donation from the Rochester Council, National Council of Catholic Men, the women's group states.

Various Rochester groups will combine with Mr. Grierson at the organ to sing Christmas carols every afternoon and evening in New York Central Station from 2 to 4:30 p. m., and 8 to 10 p. m., until Christmas.

The Council extends a Holy and Happy Christmas to its members. The Shrines in the Home Committee has continued to urge erection of cribs in homes and public places and the sending of religious Christmas cards.

Attention of members is called to this quotation from the NCCW Monthly Message for December: "As we are reminded of the love of the Infant Jesus, let us in charity, remember the little sufferers in war ravaged lands and in His Name redouble our efforts to provide the sorely needed clothing which War Relief Services N.C.W.C. is asking for these little ones and their devoted Sisters."

Women's Choral Club Installs New Staff

Officers of the Women's Choral Club installed at a meeting in Hotel Seneca are:

President, Mrs. William Troy; corresponding and recording secretary, Miss Mary Dutcher; assistant secretary, Mrs. William Murray; membership secretary, Mrs. Edith Rudenauer; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Michels; co-treasurer, Mrs. George B. Seibold.

Librarian, Mrs. William Murray; assistant librarians, Mrs. Florence Epping Harper and Miss Ann Nichols; membership chairman, Mrs. Frank Orsini; publicity chairman, Mrs. Charles H. Gertner.

Telephone Committee, Mrs. Ruby Crowley, Mrs. Doris Donabella, Mrs. A. W. Covell, Mrs. Teresa O'Brien and Miss Ann Nichols.

The Choral Club plans to build up its membership this season and new members are solicited.

Programs are being held every Tuesday evening at Old St. Mary's School, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Kober Burbank. Mrs. Hugh Dodge is accompanist.

Prayer at Christmastime

... and in a little village, midst the snow
And icy, wintry blasts that blow
Between the boards of wind-swept shed
A humble manger waits ... and bows her head.
And suddenly ... they cry
Breaks upon the starry night
And Peace is born upon the earth
To bathe the world in Heavenly Light.

Oh! Let there be another Bethlehem
And may the Tiny Babe be born again
To bring the warmth of Peace and Love

Unto the cold, dark, lonely heart of man.

Elizabethan Mystery Plays
New York — (NC) — The Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Egan, National president of the United Elizabethan Mystery Plays Society, Inc., has announced that the society will sponsor a series of plays in Rochester, N. Y., during the Christmas season.

Business Women Set Christmas Tea

Members of the Business Women's Group of the Catholic Women's Club will have a Christmas Tea on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 23 from 3 until 6 o'clock.

This tea each year marks the close of the Christmas activity of this group. This year the group's interest was centered on the men and women who live at St. Ann's Home. Motion pictures in technicolor were taken of the home and a program of movies to be shown each week will be provided.

The first picture to be shown was "Going My Way" and the presentation provided keen enjoyment to the elderly people who reside at the home.

Miss Betty Kelly is in charge of arrangements for the Christmas Tea. Assisting her will be the Misses Nellie Bearington, Mary Clark, Kay Green, Alice Kirk, Arlene Korih, Agnes La Velle, Loyetta Leccese, Eileen Moore, Mary O'Neill and Hilda Schlitzer.

Serving at the tea table will be Mrs. Ronald McDonald, Miss Mary Dunbar, Mrs. John Foley and Mrs. Edward Zimmer.

There will be a musical program during the afternoon by Miss Betty Maynard, pupil of the Eastman School of Music.
