Interned in India
 London — (NC) — About 100 Italian missionaries are still interned in India. All those that have been released are forbidden to return to their mission stations and there is a strong presumption that they will be forcibly repatriated. Archbishop Louis Mathias, S.C., of Madras, has told the Catholic Herald.

PICTURE PARADE

LOEWS' ROCHESTER
"THEY WERE EXPENDABLE"  (Family) MGM. This fine John Ford production, based on the book by W. L. White, delivers a sweeping description of the fateful days before the fall of Bataan and Corregidor. The screenplay by Frank Wead, retired Commander USN, adheres closely to the White narrative, is magnificently photographed and superbly well acted by a lengthy cast headed by Robert Montgomery, John Wayne, Ward Bond, Jack Holt and Donna Reed. The last named as a war nurse in love with Lieut. "Rusty" Ryan (John Wayne) raises the romantic interest above the level achieved in many war films. The story, however, suffers the fate of other war tales in these times. It is no longer headlines and has not yet become mature history. Exciting engagements between P. T. boats and Japanese warships, realistically photographed, provide climatic and spectacular action. Those who do not object to war in retrospect may find the film well worth admission prices.

CENTURY
"HOLD THAT BLONDE!"  (Adults) Paramount. From a Paul Armstrong play three writers devise a madcap comedy starring Eddie Bracken as a dithering kleptomaniac whose malady precipitates a chain of misunderstandings and mirthful mix-ups. Almost every slapstick routine from Mack Sennett to Preston Sturges is dragged in, including the Harold Lloyd teeter-totter on a skyscraper window sill. Veronica Lake co-stars with Albert Dekker and Negro comedian Willie Heat in chief supporting roles. Sheer nonsense from beginning to end, it is directed by George Marshall for laughs and giggles only.

Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. C. W.
 Columbus Civic Centre Lobby

The Rochester Diocesan Council, N.C.C.W. joins the diocese in acknowledging the signal honor conferred on Archbishop Edward Mooney, former Rochester ordinary, in his appointment to the College of Cardinals. A friend to the Council throughout his years in this diocese Archbishop Mooney showed his interest in the National Council of Catholic Women by furthering the organization of an Archdiocesan Council in Detroit soon after his installation there.

Recent renewals of affiliation have been received from the Mercy Guild of the Little Flower and the Catholic Women's Club of Rochester.

Registration Jan. 21 At St. Bona College

St. Bonaventure—Registration for the Second Semester at St. Bonaventure College will take place on January 21, and classes will begin on Jan. 22nd. It has been announced by college officials.

Already a large number of veterans and freshmen have expressed their intention of starting their college work in January. Because of the large registration of veterans anticipated, it will be possible for those entering college at this time to take the courses usually taught in the Fall semester. For the benefit of veterans and others starting college in January, the subjects usually taught in September session will be repeated at this time.

Professor James L. Hayes, a native of Binghamton, is veterans' counsellor at the Allegany college, and his office is daily assisting returned veterans who are interested in continuing or starting their college work.
