By Ellen T. Falvey
Waverly — George Failey was elected president of the Holy Name Society of St. James Church at a recent meeting held to re-organize the group which has been inactive for a number of years.

Others elected in the C. D. of A. Rooms on Fulton Street, are: John Dugan, vice president; Paul Curtis, financial secretary; John Murphy, treasurer; Robert Hughes, corresponding secretary, and Frank Dunlee, recording secretary.

Meetings will be held on the first Monday of each month, it was decided. Revival of the organization was made possible largely through the efforts of Rev. Robert J. Fox, pastor of St. James' and the former officers of the organization.

A successful father and son banquet was held recently under the sponsorship of the society and will be established as an annual event.

Rev. John Francis Duffy, newly appointed assistant pastor of St. James, has arrived in Waverly to take up his new duties.

Sunday, Jan. 20 will be monthly Communion Sunday for members of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. James. Members will receive Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass.

Russell L. Praval, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Praval, of Nichols, has been honorably discharged from the U.S. Navy and is spending some time at his home on Pine Street with his wife, the former Miss Mary Driscoll and children.

Monastery Sheltered Jews

New York — (NC) — "In the very monastery founded by St. Francis of Assisi, Jews worshipped in their own synagogue, built in the basement."

This was disclosed by Reuben B. Resnik, Italian director of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee. In describing to American newspapermen here the aid given by Italian Catholics to Jews during the Nazi occupation.

"While Catholics worshipped overhead," he said, "they knew that beneath them their fellow human beings, victims of Nazi oppression, were also praying. The Jews' own religious items had been kept safe in the monastery at Assisi."

From Cardinals to parish priests, the Italian clergy befriended the persecuted Jews, the relief director stated, and thousands owe their very lives to this help. Jewish men, women and children were hidden in convents, asylums for the mentally ill, and homes for the poor and the aged. Mr. Resnik said that Italian Catholics gave Jews false identity and ration cards, and other papers, to enable them to survive the occupation period.
