

Weekly Lectures On Doctrine Set At Pro-Cathedral

Catholic doctrine will form the subject matter of a series of fifteen lectures to be presented by Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral beginning Tuesday evening, Feb. 5 and ending Tuesday, May 14.

Rev. Edward J. McAniff, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart, will present the first Catholic information lecture next Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. in the school hall. The program will last one hour.

In charge of instructional matter for this series are Father McAniff and the Rev. J. Emmett Murphy, former Army chaplain, now assistant pastor at the Pro-Cathedral.

The programs will be divided between lecture and forum to afford the opportunity for discussion. Each program will be complete in itself.

Included in the series will be topics such as: proof of the existence of God, the soul, the Bible and the doctrine of the one true Church.

All interested persons are cordially invited to attend and bring along a non-Catholic friend.

Guild to Meet New Members

Reception for new members of the Good Shepherd Guild will take place at the January meeting of the group Monday evening, Jan. 28 at 8:45 p. m. at the Seneca Hotel.

In charge of reception are the following: Mesdames John H. Crerar, Delos Waddell, Alexander Grate, B. J. Herlihy, Leon Mayer, and Emmett Brennan. An entertainment program including a song sextette, a speciality act and an old-time melodrama, will be presented with Mrs. Fred Belmont in charge.

Refreshments will be served by the following committee under Mrs. H. D. Corrigan, hospitality chairman: Mesdames John Gillis, Carl Martin, James O'Neill, Julia Murr and the Misses Margaret Manning and Rita Manning.

Protestants Given Rules
Geneva — (RNS) — Hungarian Protestant ministers are free to preach whatever they wish as long as their sermons are not anti-Communist, Olivier Begun, leading Swiss Protestant layman and a secretary of the World Council of Churches, declared here after a visit to Hungary.

4th Degree Lists Array of Speakers

Beginning at this Thursday's meeting of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, the six knights will hear a series of outstanding speakers during the current year. It is announced by Faithful Navigator Frank M. Beaucaire.

Speaker for the Jan. 24 meeting was the Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Zverlefin on the subject "Russia."

The Rev. Dr. George F. Kettell, pastor of Old St. Mary's Church and past national chaplain of the American Legion will speak at the Lincoln Day dinner of the Fourth Degree on Tuesday, Feb. 12.

Addressing the knights on Thursday, March 28 will be the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, associate editor of the COURIER-JOURNAL and author of the "On Guard" column.

The Rev. Albert J. Shamon, faithful friar of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly will speak on "Paul to the Modern World," on Thursday, April 25.

Business for May will consist of nominations and in June the annual trip to Cobourg will be conducted.

Daily Communion Group Sponsored By Holy Name Unit

Report that the D. C. (Daily Communion) group had grown close to 30 members highlighted a full evening's program for the Holy Name Society of Holy Rosary Church at the January meeting.

"Veterans' Night" was observed and President John Nothnagle welcomed home 50 servicemen members among the 200 Holy Name men present. The members opened the meeting reciting the Holy Name Pledge led by the Rev. Charles J. McCarthy, spiritual director.

Jack Tucker, former U. S. Army major and Democrat and Chronicle columnist in the principal address commended the former servicemen for reaffirming themselves with their parish Holy Name Society.

A plea for social tolerance was made by Dr. Angelo Mastrolia, released from the Army as a Medical Corps Captain who had served with a Japanese-American combat unit in the Italian campaign.

Reports of 12 chairmen in the 480 membership were heard. Chairmen and their committees are: Andrew Schwind, Mission Endeavors; Edward Gregson, Alms; Joseph Attinas, Nocturnal Adoration; Frank Davis, Parish Welfare and Laymen's Retreat; Paul Imhof, Literature; Steward Donoghue, Sick and Vigils; Walter Higgins, Social Activities; John McDermott, arrangements (meetings); Cleve Keegan, Advisory; Urban McHale, Youth Activities; Norbert Baglin, Service Men.

Arthur Jewitt and Frank Reddy were named delegates to the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union meeting at St. Joseph's Church, Jan. 24.

Among achievements reported were: collection and disbursement of food, canned goods and household items to Carmelite Monastery on East Ave.; a series of social evenings, the last Friday of each month; the formation of a Cub Pack with 87 boys signed under the chairmanship of Francis Corrigan.

K. of C. Supper Dance in Veterans' Charge

Veterans of World War I with John Ward as chairman will be in charge of the next Knights of Columbus Saturday Night supper dance on Feb. 23 in Columbus Civic Centre. It is announced by Chairman of the House Committee John J. Kinney.

The success of the party held Saturday, Jan. 19 was attributed to Chairman Richard Seston by the members and their ladies attending. Lecturer Raymond Mary and Warden Rocco F. Natale handled the entertainment. Ray Fagan was in charge of music.
