Four Alhambrans Honored

Two national officers of the Order of the Alhambra joined in felicitating retiring Grand Commander George A. Conway and three other officers of Musa Caravan at a testimonial dinner in Powers Hotel, Jan. 31.

Supreme Commander George J. Klopfer of Buffalo and Supreme Scribe G. Alfred Peters, Jr. of Baltimore attended the dinner at which Supreme Vizier Norman A. O'Brien of Rochester presided and presented a plaque and pen and pencil set to Conway who served two terms as head of the local Alhambrans.

Honored also were retiring Scribe of the Exchequer Clarence M. Lofink, Grand Chamberlain William J. Woerner and Historiographer William A. Zweigle. They were presented pen and pencil sets by Deputy Supreme Commander Frank M. Beaucaire.

Other speakers included Sheriff Al Skinner and District Attorney Daniel J. O'Mara. A delegation of 12 from Cordova Caravan, Buffalo, attended as well as a representative from Navarre Caravan, Syracuse and two members of Musa from Medina.

Welcome to the visiting Alhambrans was extended by Vice Grand Commander Elmer J. Bloomer.

N. Y. Catholic Newsmen Launch Labor School

New York — (NC) — The Catholic Institute of the Press, a group of Catholic newspaper, magazine, advertising and radio workers in New York, has opened a labor school for members here.

The school, designed to provide basic training in labor ethics and to encourage participation in union activities, is under the direction of Joseph Colangelo of the American Newspaper Guild and William Kenny of International News Photos.

Benefit Ball Set by Police

Dance fans in Rochester will have special reason for looking forward to the Police Benefit Ball this year, for Woody Herman, one of the nation's top band leaders will fill the spotlight on the bandstand.

Deputy Chief George Steinhilber, who announced that Herman's band had been signed for the big event, guaranteed music to suit all kinds and ages of dance lovers who are expected to crowd the East Main Street Armory for the ball on March 4. Featured with the band are Frances Wayne, vocalist; Dave Tough, winner of Esquire's Silver awards for his virtuosity with the drums; Joseph "Flip" Phillips, tenor sax; Trombonist Bill Harris, and Chubby Jackson, bass.

Woody Herman and his band have appeared in four motion pictures, including "Earl Carroll's Vanities," "Sensations of 1944," "What's Cookin'?" and "Wintertime."

An annual affair, the Police Benefit Ball earns money for the Police Benevolent Association, for the aid of widows and orphans. Tickets for the ball are on sale at all precinct stations and by all policemen.
