

Community Projects Enlist Collegians

With mid-year examinations completed, Nazareth College students are now turning their attention to participation in community projects.

During the recent campaign for the Infantile Paralysis Fund, students took an active part in collecting contributions in local theaters. Each student also was contacted by the college committee for her personal donation.

Over $50 has been turned in at this date, with more expected for the final report.

In response to the Bishop's urgent appeal for clothing for the war stricken peoples, the Fremis Mission Unit turned over a large assortment of clothing contributed by the students.

Originally a rummage sale for the benefit of the Missions was planned, but this project was changed so the college could participate more actively in the recent drive.

Villa Auxiliary to Meet February 12

A meeting of St. Joseph's Villa Auxiliary will be conducted in St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin St., Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 9 p. m. Mrs. George Warnock, chairman of hostesses, will be assisted by Mesdames Thomas Slater, John Sullivan, William Shaffer, J. Van Sice and Carrie Werner.

Soda Italk

Members of Rochester deanery Sodality Union enjoyed the hospitality of Corpus Christi Sodality at a meeting Jan. 30 when the Rev. Elmer W. Heindl addressed the group.

A Blue Valentine party in honor of Our Lady is being planned by Holy Rosary Sodality for Tuesday, Feb. 12. All decorations will be in blue and white and a queen will be elected. Each Sodality will present a valentine to Our Lady.

Our Lady's committee is holding a mental prayer contest for its members only. Entries must total at least 150 words, not more than 600 and pauses should be indicated by four dashes. Any number may be submitted. These should be in by March 28 to Miss Betty Effinger, 1542 E. Main St. Prize for the winner is the "Let Us Pray" series of the Rev. Francis LeBuffe, S.J.

The next meeting of the Union is scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 21 at 7:45 p. m. in Blessed Sacrament.

Finda Haven in Canada Ottawa — (CIP) — Ex-President Elie Lescot of Haiti, who was recently ousted from his position by revolutionary events, has arrived with his large family at Aylmer, Province of Quebec, Canada, about 10 miles from Ottawa, where he is the guest of the Redemptorist Fathers.

NCEA Conference Calls 2 of Nazareth Faculty

Sister M. Kathleen S.S.J., of the Music Faculty of Nazareth College will be Chairman of Panel VI — Music Education in the Secondary School — at the Feb. 12 Conference of the Eastern Unit of the National Catholic Education Association, to be held at the McDonnell Memorial High School, in Brooklyn.

Other members of the Panel are: Rev. John J. Ziemak of Cardinal Hayes High School, New York; Sister Rose Teresa S.S.J., of Nazareth Academy, Rochester; Sister Rose Frances I.H.M. of St. Dominic's High School, Oyster Bay, and Miss Margaret Leddy of the Plus X School of Liturgical Music, New York.

Sister Rose Teresa of Nazareth Academy will take two students of her voice culture classes, to demonstrate the work given at Nazareth Academy in special voice production, Miss Mary Jane Halgh and Miss Rosemary Brickler. Father Ziemak will bring students to demonstrate his new methods of teaching the strings to high school students.

The National Catholic Music Educators Association will hold their second National Convention in Cleveland March 27 and 28. Active members who plan to attend, should write Sr. Lucy, 3230 Rocky River Drive, Cleveland for accommodations.

To Bernadette

(In commemoration of the first appearance of Our Lady to Bernadette at Lourdes, February 11, 1858.)

ARDUOUSNESS (Oh)

'Tis difficult, sweet Bernadette to write a lay to You; to try to ward, in phrases set a eulogy that's new (for)

Have You not heard the highest praise from angels and from men? So how could we expect to gaze You with this lowly pen? (yes)

But then again, was not your life made lowly, and defaced by poverty and grievous strife? But Oh how You were graced! REMINISCENCES (though)

That Winter's day was calm and cold, the grotto's walls were filled with mystic rays of leaden gold (The wild rose bush was stilled) (yes)

And there She stood, Her face aglow; and then She even smiled! This special grace would she bestow on You—her favorite child. (still)

No outward sign would You impart of grace that was your own That blessed Love which filled your heart could not to us be shown. SUPPLICATION (for)

Your life on earth was far above the zenith of our mind To that pure life—that Love of love—we'll always be quite blind. (yet)

Do this for me, sweet Bernadette, and I'll not ask for more Say to your queen: "Do not forget him when his journey's o'er" (and)

I'm sure that She would not refuse your sweet, sincere request For after all, did she not choose your heart o'er all the rest.

ADVICE ON EATING

New York — (INS) — Dr. Victor G. Heiser celebrates his 73rd birthday and offers some advice: "If we ate correctly in this country, our disease rate would be cut in half, and we wouldn't have to build one additional hospital."

New Catholic County Sheet Dayton, O. — (NC) — Treasures Chest, a new four-color "comic" magazine of the factual type, will make its newstand bow on March 12, according to an announcement by George A. Pittman, Inc., which also publishes the Young Catholic Messenger series of school papers. The new publication, which will present biographical material, activity projects, and fiction with a Catholic background, will appear every two weeks during the school year.
