Indonesian Strife Delays Missioners

Malay Peninsula, W.I.A. — (NC) — Political strife in Indonesia is interfering with the return of missionaries to their work. Bishop Henry M. Mekkehoft, Vicar Apostolic of Palembang, revealed in a letter received by the Sacred Heart Fathers here.

rebuilding our mission stations. But we are still living in a kind of internment because of political troubles. All our priests (twelve), our Brothers (twelve) and Sisters (82) are interned here with 4,000 other Europeans and are protected by a small garrison of British-Indian and Japanese troops.

G.I.s Find Russian Priest from U. S.

New York — Father Maurice Meyers, S.J., is known to American troops in Shanghai, China, as the "Russian priest with the Hoodler accent."

A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Father Meyers is kept busy explaining to G. I.'s that his long black beard and Russian robe is not a disguise. He actually belongs to the Russian Rite. Since the beginning of the war he has been working, with two other Jesuits, among the large Russian population of Shanghai. "We entered this work," says Father Meyers, "with our eye on Russia and our hopes high to contribute to making Russia once more a member of the family of Christian nations. Our Shanghai work is a practical preparation for ourselves both in the language and the psychology of the people."

Consistory

Schedule Set

nitaries will call on the new Cardinals to bring them congratulations and pay homage.

Scarlet Biretta Given
The next ceremony in the imposition of the scarlet biretta upon the new Cardinals. It will take place in the Great Hall of Benediction above the grand portico of St. Peter's, instead of one of the halls of the Papal apartment, where it was formerly held.

Thursday, February 21, will bring the climax of the ceremonies. In the Basilica of St. Peter, at a public Consistory, the Supreme Pontiff will confer the Red Hats on the new Cardinals. No more stirring and beautiful setting can be imagined for the ceremony than this monumental edifice, surmounted by Michelangelo's cupola as by a gorgeous crown.

After pronouncing their oaths of allegiance and fidelity to the Vicar of the Blessed Sacrament, the new Cardinals will proceed the Holy Father as he is carried on the sedia gestatoria to the Papal Throne, erected directly before the Papal Altar in the central nave of the Basilica. It is there that the Red Hats are given to the new Princes of the Church. Also at this time, if the Pontiff so direct, other Papal acts, such as the publication of laws, etc., may take place.

The Public Consistory will close with the chanting of the "Te Deum" and the prayer "Cardinales Noviter Electos," while the new Cardinals prostrate themselves before the Altar of the Chair of St. Peter. The prayer for the new Cardinals will be intoned by the Dean of the Sacred College, 85-year-old Cardinal Gemaro Granillo Pignatelli of Belmonte.

On Friday, February 22, the second and final Secret Consistory will be held. On this occasion the new Cardinals will be given their rings and titular churches and decorations will be assigned to them.

Peace comes that the terms of expediency rather than of principle will not prevail.
