CDA to Observe 20th Anniversary Of Junior Groups

Two decades of a religious, educational, charitable and recreational program for Catholic girls, which had its origin in New York on Feb. 23, 1926, will be observed by Senior and Junior Catholic Daughters of America in a nation-wide program beginning Feb. 18 and continuing until Feb. 24.

First scheduled event for the twentieth anniversary observance, according to Miss Beatrice M. Hoffman, Mount Kisco, New York, National Junior Director, will be the anniversary Mass of thanksgiving and corporate Communion on Sunday, Feb. 23.

As the birthday anniversary gift, a spiritual bouquet will be presented to the Holy Father through the office of the Apostolic Delegate, the Most Rev. Amleto Giovanni Cicognani. This will be the 4th annual Spiritual Bouquet to be sent to the Pontiff.

The Senior-Junior program, according to Miss Mary C. Duffy, Supreme Regent of the Catholic Daughters, was authorized by the national officers and directors twenty years ago, to meet the need of that day for a Catholic youth guidance program. In the intervening years the program has been extended into 70 dioceses with episcopal approval and is organized in 31 states and in Puerto Rico.

The records of Junior activities over the period of twenty years indicate, Miss Hoffman states, that the Junior standards — to love God, to serve others, to live nobly — and the Junior's motto — be useful — are taken seriously.

In the twenty years more than $200,000 has been contributed by the Juniors to Home and Foreign Missions and other charitable programs — exclusive of the personal services rendered.

The spiritual growth, however, she believes from personal contacts and from reports, is unexcelled by any other youth group, noting particularly the increase of Masses heard, Holy Communion received, special prayers and devotions, which form the annual Spiritual Bouquet for the Holy Father.

Bishop William J. Haffey of Scranton, and National Chaplains for the Catholic Daughters of America is Episcopal Chairman for the National Junior Department and Reverend Robert Brown, Associate Director of the Catholic Youth Organization of the Archdiocese of New York, is National Junior Chaplain.

Guild Names Aides for Dance

Climaxing its pre- Lenten activities and celebrating its recent successful membership drive, the Good Shepherd Guild will hold its annual supper dance Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Power Hotel.

Dancing will be from 10 o'clock to 2 o'clock with Herbert Klein's orchestra furnishing the music. An general chairman, Miss Corbin Murphy has appointed the following on committees: Mesdames Frances Maloney, Dolores Waddell, Harry Kohl, Frank Hubbard, Dr. William Meahan, John H. Cronan, Joseph Flanagan, George Spillane, Harold Davis, George Schwab, Francis Connolly, George Davis, George Wetzel and C. Arnold Warner.

The reception committee is composed of the following: Mesdames John H. Cronan, Dolores Waddell, A. E. Cronan, E. J. Hinchey, Emmett Brennan, Lela Mayer, Fred Belmont, Leo H. Davis, George Conway, Clarence Branch and Miss Irene Peterson.

Mrs. George Spillane is ticket chairman and the following members have charge of telephone reservations: Mrs. Frances Maloney, Mrs. C. Arnold Warner and Mrs. George Wetzel.

Army Doctor Wins High Promotion

Dr. Richard E. Nied, former physician at St. Mary's Hospital, now a member of the U. S. Army Medical Corps, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Nied, 299 Westminster Rd., Colonel Nied returned to his home recently after more than two years service in the South Pacific. He has been stationed at Rhodes General Hospital, Utica, since his return to the States.

The 36-year-old physician is a graduate of Blessed Sacrament School and Aquinas Institute. He attended Niagara and Georgetown universities and interned at St. Mary's Hospital where he joined the staff for a year. After three years practicing at his Lyell Avenue office, he enlisted in the Medical Corps in 1941.

Valentine Dance Set At St. Anne's Hall

Under the joint sponsorship of St. Anne's Rosary and Altar Society and the Holy Name Society a Valentine Dance will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 16, in the parish hall.

Cochairmen are Mrs. Theodore Strohmeier and James Farrell. Assisting them are: George Weise, Robert McKenna and Angelo Maggio; Mesdames Richard Weider, Richard Sanderl, George Humbert, William Sheppard and Charles Haight.

Music will be furnished for modern and old fashioned dancing. Refreshments will be served. Members of the parish and their friends are invited.
