Rites Conducted For Mrs. Torpey

Funeral services for Mrs. Genevieve A. Torpey, mother of Sister Clare Regina of the Sisters of St. Joseph, were conducted from the family home, 51 Shepard St., and from Blessed Sacrament Church Thursday, Feb. 7, 1946.

Mrs. Torpey, wife of Richard S. Torpey, treasurer of Blessed Sacrament Holy Name Society, died at her home Monday, Feb. 4, 1946. Also surviving are one son, Paul E., and three other daughters, Joan, Genevieve and Helen; two grandchildren.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by the Rev. Elmer Farrell of Hartford, Conn., assisted by the Rev. Thomas Manley, deacon, and the Rev. John Morgan, subdeacon.

In the sanctuary were the Reverend Fathers: Thomas F. Connors, Raymond Wahl, Francis Kennedy, Thomas J. Slattery, Frank W. Mason, Joseph O'Connell and Aiphonsus P. Crimmins.

Bearers for Mrs. Torpey were Emmet O'Neill, William F. Rice, Ralph Murphy, Joseph H. Corcoran, Emmett Fermolie and Philip O'Connor.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was imparted by Father Manley, assisted by Father Feeney and Father Wahl.

200 Book Music Fund of $86,000

Some 200 volunteer campaigners will start out this week on a campaign to "Keep Rochester America's most musical city."

They're the members of 36 teams which will be soliciting financial support of Western New Yorkers for the maintenance of the Rochester Philharmonic and Civic Orchestras and the series of concert artist recitals given annually in the Eastman Theater.

Goal for the campaigners is $86,000. Secured the subscription necessary to insure maintenance of the program at its present high artistic level. The fund supports box office receipts in making Rochester music possible.

As has been done during previous drives, the 17th annual campaign will have 18 men's and women's teams pitted in friendly competition for subscriptions and contributions. All donations of $5 and over give membership in the CMA, which carries admission to certain concerts and other members' benefits.

Veteran campaigners lead both divisions — Mrs. F. Hawley Ward, the women, and Frank M. Houston, the men. Arthur M. Dea, executive secretary of the CMA, is campaign manager, with Edward E. Farrow Jr., general chairman. John B. Roche is publicity chairman.

Campaign drive for this year is being conducted in the form of a "Book Music" drive. The drive is being conducted by the CMA, which carries admission to certain concerts and other members' benefits.
