Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen: "It is foolish to wrangle over the will not find time enough to make a site necessary."

Syracuse Drive Oversubscribed

Syracuse - (NC) - A public subscription campaign for gifts to the Le Moyne College Building Fund conducted throughout the Diocese of Syracuse has been over-subscribed by more than $500,000, returns have disclosed. A $1,000,000 goal was fixed for the campaign and thus far returns have totaled $1,576,787. It has been announced.
The campaign was opened formally with a Solemn Mass at which Bishop Walter A. Pomy of Syracuse was the celebrant. The Le Moyne College will be conducted by the Jesuits.
The Very Rev. Anthony Blucher, S.J., has been named as its first president. The plan calls for an eventual $10,000,000 educational plant to be erected on a site on Le Moyne Hill in the eastern part of Syracuse. The college is named for a celebrated Jesuit missionary, Father Simon Le Moyne, who lived among the Indians in the land of the Onondagas in the 1650's.

3 Diocesan Priests At Consistory

Rome from Bremen, Germany, where he is attached to the department of the chaplains of his division at the forthcoming consistory, according to a cable received in Rochester by his sister, Lieutenant Mary O'Malley, an overseas Army nurse now on furlough leave.
Recently appointed to a Vatican post as an official of the Sacred Congregation of Oriental Rites and formerly of the faculty of St. Bernard's Seminary, Father Burns departed for Rome by plane from New York on Tuesday.
His plane left via Paris and is scheduled to arrive in Rome today. Missing him somehow because he boarded the plane with his mother, Mrs. John Burns of Rochester and his sister, Mrs. Thelma Joyce of Boston.
Of the three Rochester priests in Rome to witness the elevation of the new cardinal, Father O'Malley is the only one who was ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal John Mooney when the latter served as Bishop of Rochester.
