

Spurs Hornellians in Seminary Drive

This huge thermometer, erected in the sanctuary of St. Ann's Church, will measure the success of the St. Andrew's Seminary Campaign. Shown (from left) are: the Rev. Andrew T. D'Neft, parish director; Thomas F. Kinney, parish chairman; J. Gerald Griffin, zone chairman and the Rev. Paul Gibbons Zone 12 director. Photo by Taylor

Plans Completed by K. of C. St. Patrick's Day Dinner

Arrangements have been completed for the 17th annual St. Patrick's Day banquet to be held on Sunday, March 17, at the Mark Twain Hotel.

Elmira Council, Knights of Columbus sponsors this dinner which brings out a capacity attendance each year.

Grand Knight Thomas R. Burns announces the appointment of Charles J. Kromer and David Vincent Sheehan as co-chairmen. Assisting will be the following committee heads: Eugene F. Agan and Cornelius Mullen, program; Harry D. Kane and Edward Behrman Jr., tickets; Mortimer L. McInerney and John Mack, dinner; Phillip J. Sullivan and J. John Hassett Jr., guests; Robert L. Potts, arrangements and James W. O'Hara, Jr., publicity.

Elmira G.I. Meets Fr. Vogt in Germany

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Cirulli, 812 N. Main St., that their son, M/Sgt. Harry N., recently had an enjoyable visit with Capt. Francis Vogt, former assistant pastor at St. Anthony's church. The meeting took place at Schleisheim, Germany, a short distance from Munich.

M/Sgt. Cirulli is a communications rider in the Ninth Army Air Force and has been overseas for the past two years. He was employed as a teletype operator for Western Union before entering the service. Another son, Sgt. Yeoman Armando has been in the Navy for the past two and a half years and while in Iran, Africa about two years ago had the unexpected pleasure of meeting Father Bernard C. Hanna, former pastor of St. Anthony's.

Both young men are graduates of St. Anthony's school.

Pope Makes Writers' Work More — (RNB) — Pope Pius XII gave an audience to Gabrielle Mistral, noted Chilean poetess and Nobel prizewinner, during which he stressed the contribution of writers toward world reconstruction.

Represents School In Legion Contest

BY HELEN RUDDICK
Selection of contestants for the American Legion county oratorical contest was held last Friday at Elmira Catholic High School.

Cornelius J. Minkens Jr. was chosen to represent the school in the county contest. John Henry won second honors in the school competition. The judges were J. Gerald Loughlin, David Vincent Sheehan and Charles J. Kromer.

The county contest will be held in the Parley Coburn School on Feb. 18 at 8 p. m.

Neutrals for a Memorable Spring!

GLAMOROUS GREY!

The knowledge that you're well dressed is wonderful and one that's not hard to attain when your costume is a neutral shade. Soft, glamorous grey with smart colorful accessories for a bright spring. The very new dropped shoulder and nipped-in waist are found in the late Spring models. Grey will be a predominating color for Spring '46 Style.

$24.00

OTHERS $31.57

SUITS—Second Floor

Sheehan's
Elmira