

Mercy Juniors Slate Dance

Juniors of Our Lady of Mercy High School have scheduled a semi-formal dance for their class Friday, Mar. 1, in the school gymnasium. Vic Sweet's orchestra will furnish music for the affair which has been called "The Last Snow Ball."

The dance will be closed to Seniors and sophomores. Co-chairmen are Ann Tierney and Rosemary Leimberger.

Decoration of the gymnasium is being handled by Virginia Huns; Mary Anne Coatch is in charge of tickets; Jean Devaney, refreshments; and Mary Anne Gaenles, publicity.

Parents of the students will act as chaperons.

Medicine for Missioners Drive Opens at College

The Fremin Mission Unit of Nazareth College is sponsoring a medicine drive for the benefit of missionaries in war ravaged countries. Class chairmen are contacting each student, and are compiling a list of doctors and dentists whose assistance will be asked in this drive.

Any medical or dental supplies will be most welcome. They will be packed by the students and shipped to various missionary fields which are desperately in need of medical aid.

Any contribution from the public may be made through Helen Mary Bauman, president of the Mission Unit.

An old fashioned Barn Dance, sponsored by the Sodality, will be held in the college gym on Monday evening, March 1. Students, half of whom will dress as farm boys, the other half as country girls, will participate in round and square dances under the direction of a caller.

The Sophomore class will present "Soph Follies" on Tuesday, March 5, a variety show featuring members of the class in songs, dances and comedy skits. Proceeds will go toward the fund which has been established for the education of two Chinese students at the college next year.

A program in honor of St. Thomas Day will be held during Student's Hour on Thursday, March 7. A round table discussion will be held on the topic of St. Thomas and his connection in philosophy and science with the present problem of atomic power. Elaine Mulcahy will lead the discussion and various phases will be analyzed by Peggy McStrevick, Jeanne Lennon and Mary Ann Lane.

WAR UNPROFITABLE

London — George Bernard Shaw: "The atom bomb has made war unprofitable, so it's already outmoded. Before, when countries waged war, they got rich. Now they wage war and get poor. All the victor takes over is a heap of rubble, a pile of corpses and a horde of hungry people whose means of existence he has destroyed."
