degree of formal education is eligible for membership in a discussion club; Father Vogt explains. "The discussion club is for busy men and women who come together to obtain exact information, a readiness in expressing it, and an opportunity to translate it into action."

Pointing out that the importance of study groups is recognized by Pope Pius XII, he quotes from a Papal encyclical: "The needs of our times then, require that the laity . . . procure for themselves a treasure of religious knowledge, not a poor and meager knowledge but one that will have solidity and richness, through the medium of libraries, discussions and study clubs."

Alumni Sponsor Notre Dame Film

A public showing of the motion picture "Life at Notre Dame," on Wednesday, Feb. 27 in Aquinas Institute Auditorium at 8:15 p. m. will climax a two-day program of activity by the Notre Dame Club of Rochester.

The club comprising alumni of the University of Notre Dame will welcome to Rochester on Tuesday evening, Feb. 26 at a dinner in Hotel Sheraton, the Rev. Francis V. G. YAWMAN P. Goodall, C.S.C., director of public relations at the University.

Father Goodall, who was formerly a Holy Cross missionary in India and later a service chaplain will show the film and address the Aquinas Institute student body on Wednesday, Feb. 27.

At the public showing on Wednesday night, he will answer questions on finances and accommodations at the University of Notre Dame for parents and prospective students, Chairman Victor G. Yawman, vice president of the Notre Dame Club states. There will be no admission charge to the presentation.
