Citizen Group Backs Police Ball March 4

New treasurer of the Citizen's Committee for the Police Benefit Ball is James E. Gleason, long-time member of the committee. It has been announced by Carl S. Hallauer, chairman of the committee. The Police Ball is scheduled for March 4 at the East Main St. Armory.

Gleason will fill the position left vacant last June with the death of Herbert J. Winn, who had served in that capacity since the committee's organization. Hallauer and Frank J. Smith, again named vice-chairman, have also served many years.

Music for the ball, slated to be a special gala as the first big peace-time event of its kind in Rochester, will be provided by Woody Herman and his licorice-stick band. Alternating with Herman will be Jim Dennis, a local group.

Profits from the affair go to the Police Benevolent Association, to be used in the aid of survivors of members of the Police Bureau. Tickets are on sale at all precinct stations and may be bought from any policeman.
