Speaking in behalf of this cause was the Rev. Arthur Flack, Pastor of St. Michael's Church, who outlined a program for the continuance of the movement. Other speakers were William Wittman, President of the Catholic Central Verein-Rochester Branch, and August M. Mafer-member of the Executive Committee of the Catholic Central Verein for the Kolping Society, William Rogers, and Edward Mirck, and for the Ladies Auxiliary of the Kolping Society, Mrs. William Rogers.

Plans have been made to keep the Kolping Society's meeting rooms at St. Michael's Hall, 104 Bedford Ave., open every Thursday evening from 8:00 to 9:00 p. m. to accept donations of funds and clothing for the purpose of German War Relief. Mr. William Rogers was selected as Chairman.
