St. Patrick's Church Aides Thanked for Cooperation

Various groups of aides in St. Patrick's Church, Elmira, were the guests of the Very Rev. William J. Brien, V.F., last Sunday evening at the Mark Twain Hotel on the occasion of the annual appreciation dinner.

Father Brien assured those present of his gratitude for their help in their respective assignments and reminded his listeners that what they were accomplishing was for the honor and glory of Almighty God.

The Rev. John V. Loughlin, Chaplain at the Youth Reception Center was toastmaster and presented the guests, including ushers, trustees, auditors, members of the press and others.

Several former assistants at St. Patrick's and a group of Elmira and vicinity priests were present.

Others on the speaking program were: the Rev. John A. Murphy, the Rev. William A. Burns, the Rev. John S. Maloney and the Rev. Leo G. Schwab, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Mrs. Frances Lynch led the group in community singing and a program of "Feats in Magic" concluded the evening's entertainment.
