Burma Catholics Come Through Test of War

St. Columbanus, Neb. — (NC) — "The war has tested our people; they demand our respect and admiration," the Rev. Lawrence D. McMahon, Columban missionary from Chicago, writes in a letter received here about his flock in Burma.

"Out of 4,000 baptized Catholics and 4,000 catechumens," he says, "there were few defections from the Faith. This should answer the doubts of those who are skeptical concerning the good faith of our converts, suspecting them of entering the Church for material motives."

Troy — With the Most Rev. Edmund F. Gibbons, Bishop of Albany, presiding, Solemn Funeral Mass for Miss Kate Mahoney, retired national president of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association, was offered in St. Paul the Apostles' Church here Saturday, March 9.
