

Fr. Urban to Conduct St. Anthony's Mission

A Mission to be conducted in English will open Sunday evening at 7:30 in St. Anthony's church and continue for one week. The Rev. Urban Curran, C.P., of St. Ann's Monastery, Scranton, Pa., will speak at all Masses on Sunday and at the Mission services.

A children's Mission for students of public schools and St. Anthony's parish will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the church.

Masses will be celebrated daily at 6:30, 7:15 and 8 and evening services will commence at 7:30.

A special Novena service will be held on Tuesday evening at 8:45 for those unable to make the Mission.

The regular Novena prayers will be recited on Tuesday evening at 7:30 before the start of the Mission.

Diocesan Music Teachers to Meet

A special message for all Organists and Choir Directors of the Rochester Diocese will be announced by the Rev. Benedict Elman at a meeting of Diocesan Music educators Saturday, Mar. 23 at Aquinas Institute.

Sister M. Scholastica, I.H.M. of Marywood, Scranton, Pa., will demonstrate "Creative Work in Chant" and the "Teaching of Part Work" in Elementary Music Education. Widely experienced as a Music Supervisor in 9 states, Sister is author of a new series of Music Readers for Catholic schools.

A new approach to the teaching of piano will be the subject of a lecture and demonstration by Ella Mahon Ahearn, outstanding teacher and piano artist. Mrs. Ahearn teaches at Columbia University, in the New Jersey Public Schools and at Greenwich Academy, Greenwich, Conn. She is author of piano works and a judge for contests of piano performance.

All music teachers of the diocese are urged to attend this meeting.

Corning Weddings

Messina - O'Bryan

Corning — Miss Patricia M. Messina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Messina, 49 Warren St., and William H. O'Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Bryan, W. Third St., were united in marriage Saturday, Mar. 2, in St. Vincent de Paul's Church. The Rev. Frederick Walz, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Rose Messina. Mrs. Lucy Tarantelli of E. Putney St., was bridesmaid. John A. Hanrahan of W. Fourth St., was best man and Sam Messina, brother of the bride, ushered.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for 40 guests was served at the Union Hall. Later a reception was held after which Mr. and Mrs. O'Bryan left for a week's trip.

The bride attended St. Vincent de Paul's School and Northside High School. She has been employed at Corning Glass Works. Mr. O'Bryan, recently discharged from the Army, is a graduate of St. Mary's Prochial School and Corning Free Academy. He is employed at the Glass Works.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Bryan will live at 234 W. Third St.

Triduum Opened At Watkins Glen

Watkins Glen — A Triduum of Grace will be preached by the Rev. Michael Connors, C.P., of the Passionist Order on Thursday, March 14, Friday, March 15, and Saturday, March 16, at St. Mary's of the Lake Church, Watkins Glen, N. Y. The Triduum will close Sunday, March 17, at 3:30 p. m.

A Triduum is three days of special sermons and spiritual exercises and devotions to enable the people of the parish to enter into the spirit of Lent and to prepare for Easter.

Services are scheduled for 7:30 each evening followed by confessions. Confessions will be heard in Italian on Friday evening. Masses will be at 5:30 a. m. and 8:00 a. m. with special Communion for the children at the 8:00 o'clock Mass Saturday.

Father Connors is a member of the Passionist Mission band from Scranton, Pa. He attended St. Andrew's Seminary at Rochester before entering the Passionist Order. Several of the neighboring parishes will attend evening services to assist Father Connors.

Bolivian Catholic Party

La Paz, Bolivia — (RNS) — Plans for a new Bolivian Catholic Party are under way here, according to Ultima Hora, La Paz newspaper. The proposed party is described by the organizers as "an eminently national religious, democratic party which aspires to give the country definite directions toward the complete and practical solution of its many problems."

150,000 Stamps for Missions Sought at Catholic High

By Helen Kuddick

During the last week the students of Elmira Catholic High School have received a letter from Sister Theresa of the Stamp Bureau in Bedford, Mass., thanking them for the large bag of stamps sent them.

The competitive drive is still on among the home rooms. So far, the Sophomores lead with 60,000. The goal is 150,000 stamps.

Sociality News

The Mardi-Gras Dance was a marked success from the financial and social point of view. During the course of the evening, Violet Boyle did a tap dance accompanied by Ann Reidy.

Jerome Hogan was chairman assisted by Camilla Maloney and Mary Ellen Fautz. Margaret Fusaro and Cornelius Milliken Pamphlets

The newly installed pamphlet rack is always surrounded by a group of students eager to read the timely articles. The rental fee of one cent seems to agree with their purses.

During Lent the Sociality is advocating several practices which include the Daily Six. This practice calls for daily Mass, Holy Communion, recitation of the Rosary, stations, visit to the Blessed Sacrament and daily practice of the character builder.

In order that we may not forget what war service men have undergone for us, every Wednesday in Lent has been set aside as Casualty Day. On this day our Mass, Holy Communion and other prayers are offered for the members of our armed forces who have been killed or wounded during the war.

Though the efforts of the Sociality the students are enabled to hear radio talks during March by outstanding speakers. These talks concern vocations.

Thursday evening the students heard an inspiring talk on vocations given by the Rev. Howard Smith of the Home Missions Society of America.

He told of the deplorable con-
