

Propaganda College Honors Noted Alumni

Roanoke — (Radio, NC) — Newly created Princes of the Church, including Cardinals Edward Mooney, Samuel A. Stritch and Francis J. Spellman, who made their studies at the Propaganda University, were honored there at exercises which marked the centenary of the conversion of Cardinal Henry Newman, who was also an alumnus of the university.

Students of the Propaganda College presented scenes from "Second Spring," a play about Cardinal Newman by Emmet Lavery. The Schola Cantorum of the university sang "Lead Kindly Light," the hymn written by Newman. In an arrangement by Monsignor Praglia, a Pontifical choirmaster.

Seville Prelate Tells Catholics To Defend Spain

Madrid — (RNS) — A call to Spanish Catholics to defend their country against "dangers which surround us" was sounded by Peter Cardinal Segura y Saenz, Archbishop of Seville, in a pastoral letter.

He warned that "a new convulsion is approaching our frontiers" and charged that propaganda against Spain is being spread by "that political party which would destroy order and all organized society."

The pastoral letter said in part: "By the special grace of God, Spain enjoys an enviable international peace, in contrast with nations which suffered and still suffer from the ravages of the world war."

"But a new convulsion is approaching our frontiers, and we would be lacking in our duty as spiritual father and shepherd if we did not inform you of the dangers which now surround us."

"After 20 centuries of Christian civilization, we see a return of paganism. We see propaganda spreading hatred of the family and of the fatherland such as the world has never known. These doctrines, which form part of that political party which would destroy order and all organized society, constitute an imminent danger for humanity."

"It is necessary to proclaim in the face of this threat the sacred duty of good sons of the Catholic Church to love and defend their country."

Msgr. O'Grady Endorses Federal Housing Program

Washington, D. C. — (RNS) — Support of the government's emergency housing program by "every citizen and organization" was urged here by the Rt. Rev. John O'Grady, secretary of the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

"The building of 2,700,000 houses in two years is a bold venture," Msgr. O'Grady declared, "but it should not exceed the capacity of a people who produced the greatest war machine of all time in less than two years."
