Chaplain Gefell Gets Army Award in Japan

With the Eighth Army, Kyoto, Japan—Captain Joseph G. Gefell, son of Mr. and Mrs. August D. Gefell, 42 Lail Street, Rochester, was recently among the first men in Georgia Headquarters to be awarded the Army Commendation Ribbon.

Chaplain Gefell, a Catholic priest in the Chaplain's Corps, received the commendation on Feb. 19 for meritorious service during the period from August 1945 to January 1946, "for providing, while bivouacked in Manila, Philippine Islands, spiritual care for Headquarters troops and for outlying units which did not possess Chaplains, at a time when there was a critical shortage of Chaplains in Corps—For helping to maintain the mental, moral and spiritual stability of our troops when their morale was no longer at a battle pitch—For establishing, by his own personal initiative and hard labor, two chapels in Osaka, Japan, in widely separated sections of the city—both of which chapels were regarded by all who saw them as the most beautiful and worshipful any had ever seen while in service overseas.

Prior to volunteering into the Army in March 1945, Chaplain Gefell was a priest in the Diocese of Rochester. He studied at St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester and was ordained in 1941.

Dante Talk Set Sunday At Aquinas

From Fordham University Graduate School comes the Rev. Gerald Walsh, S.J., Ph.D., head of the department of Italian Studies, as speaker this Sunday (Mar. 24) in the ninth event of the Christian Culture Series at Aquinas auditorium.

FR. WALSH

An acknowledged world authority on "Dante," Doctor Walsh will lecture on the great poet of the middle ages beginning at 8 p. m.

Born in Norwalk, Conn., Doctor Walsh was ordained a priest in the Society of Jesus in 1926. Most of his studies were pursued at London and in the Gregorian University in Rome. In 1934 he returned to Rome to take over a post as professor of medieval history at the University.

He later became the editor of "Thought," a quarterly review of Catholic contemporary thought and culture published by Fordham University Graduate School professors.

He is a medallist of London's Royal Geographic Society, a Cibbs scholar in modern history and Marquis of Lothian prize man at Oxford University.

Among his works are "The Emperor Charles IV," "Medieval Humanism," "The Catholic Philosophy of History," and "Faith for Today," as well as many learned treatises on "Dante."

His lecture here Sunday is constructed for those familiar with the great thinker and those who are anxious to learn.
