Father Flynn Says: Making Religion Disappear Is Their Common Goal

Funny things appear in the papers these days. Here are a couple of items that give the key to some weighty problems.

Father Patrick O'Connor, president of the Catholic Press Association of the United States, is currently visiting in Japan. The other day Father O'Connor climbed to the second floor of the two-story Communist headquarters in Tokyo.

How then, did this authoritative Red leader explain present-day Communism to Mr. Callender of the TIMES?

is often commended under the most seductive trap-flags, in its substance based on the principles of materialism and historical materialism previously advocated by Marx...

is also the key to understanding the tragedy of the Communist. It is also the key to understanding the actions and aims of a Communist government.

Of course, the Communist dream of a Paradise on Earth can never come true. If it were possible for such a godless and soulless world to exist, the Communists, we suspect, would be the first to grow tired of it.

Father Gile Says: 800,000 Children Have No Religion in One City

New and again some philistine comes up with figures that jolt us out of our complacency. We are told that in a few of the parishes as far as the religious condition in America is concerned. Especially we Catholics.

As for the children's Mass in large city parishes the children are so few that the church that grows into a cathedral is forbidden to try to get in.

There is one good circumstance about these otherwise doleful facts. It is always well when light is thrown into dark places. It is good to be awakened out of a coma.

results. I know a big parish in which a scientifically conducted census revealed the fact that 1,000 children were not attending the parochial school. The pastor had previously estimated 300.

We have already some 60 million people or more who belong to no Church. They may or may not be atheists.

Count in the Red Hat

By DAN PATRICK

A light of the Church which burned brightly through the myopia of darkness of Nazi Germany was snuffed out.

His Eminence, Clement August Cardinal Count von Galen, Bishop of Munster in Germany, died.

Only a few weeks ago the appearance of an historic world-wide audience rang through the Vatican as Pope XII held the Red Hat over the towering Six Feet, eight inch Prince of the Church at a memorable conclave.

Red Germany was the war there he every likelihood that Cardinal von Galen would have marched to martyrdom on a Nazi gallows.

Reich Democrats Stranded

By TOM ROGERS

Washington - Small but significant stories are floating around this city, all of them slight-but all of them jammed with possibilities and implications.

For instance, there are over 300 German Communists, all members of the Free German Committee, now in London waiting to go to Germany.

We haven't been too slow in all foreign fields. The Belgian Congo contains deposits of uranium which makes the atom bomb.

There are two other items that should prove of interest. As mentioned here a few weeks ago, the atomic bomb test in the Pacific has been delayed for a number of weeks.

That These May Eat

Great was the crowd that followed Christ to witness his miraculous curing of the sick.

Christ was poor, His Apostles had little if any money. Even were they rich, they could find no markets there in the wilderness.
