...and guards. Two hundred and sixty priests were imprisoned in concentration camps and more were arrested and later released, the statistics reveal. Eight priests were executed, 52 died in concentration camps, seven died later of injuries sustained in imprisonment, and two priests are still missing.

...Your Feet Hurt?

...BURNING...PAINS...CALLOUSES ...THE BALL OF THE FOOT

Are usual complaints from women who have long worn style shoes with heels of extreme height. Women will endure this discomfort only until they are PARMELEE-fitted with DICKERSON SHOES.

The metatarsal relief feature built into these shoes is the only proven means of relieving the shock and pressure at the ball of the foot on a shoe with heels of fashionable height.

LADY'S DIGEST TO BE EDITED BY FR. MATUSZEWSKI

Named editor of Our Lady's Digest, a new national Catholic monthly magazine of the Lasallette Fathers is the Rev. Stanley Matuszewski, M.S., native of Rochester. It is announced at LaSalette Seminary, in Olivet, Wis.

The new digest to appear in May will contain articles on the Blessed Virgin gathered from Catholic magazines, books and periodicals.

Father Matuszewski who is prefect of studies at the La Salette Seminary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Matuszewski of 20 Zygmont, Rochester, and brother of Chaplain Leo J. Matuszewski, now in the U. S. Army.

Ordained in Albany, May 30, 1942, Father Matuszewski, a member of the LaSalette order of preachers and missioners, celebrated his First Solemn Mass in St. Stanislaus Church, Rochester on June 14, 1942.

A graduate of St. Andrew's Seminary, he was widely known in the field of public speaking in Rochester and was honored at Edgerton Park in 1944 by the Rochester Centennial Committee and Rochester Speakers Bureau for his oratorical attainments. He is author of the Rochester Centennial oration, "Youth Marches On," now used in several universities.
