

Behold Thy Mother

By REV. RAY B. MORFEY
Diocesan Director for Social Work

Behold thy Mother—just as she is, not as we wish her to be. In the eyes of the world, she is a woman of flesh and blood, with all its weaknesses and all its beauties. But in the eyes of God, she is the Mother of God, the Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ. We must learn to look at her as she is, not as we wish her to be. In the eyes of the world, she is a woman of flesh and blood, with all its weaknesses and all its beauties. But in the eyes of God, she is the Mother of God, the Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ. We must learn to look at her as she is, not as we wish her to be.

AID NURSES OF WAR AREAS

War and means of aiding some 100,000 nurses, many of them women, in war-torn countries were discussed at an "International Night" program sponsored by the Catholic Nurses League of Pittsburgh. Speakers on that occasion were, left to right: Miss Naomi Dunham, principal nurse consultant to the Pan American Sanitary Commission; Miss Mlle J. Taylor, president, International Council of Nurses; and Rev. James J. Logan, national director, National Council of Catholic Nurses. The third national convocation of the N. C. C. N. will be held in Toledo, May 24-26. (MC Photos)

WHAT IS NCCW?

By REV. ALBERT J. SHAMON
Diocesan Director
National Council of Catholic Women

Society needs Christ. Because He, the cornerstone, has been rejected, everything today is toppling. Right is wrong, and wrong is right; fair is foul and foul is fair. For Christ is out of economics, out of politics, out of society. To save civilization, He must be brought back. But how?

Strictly for the Girls—Hints on Tactful Dating

By MABELA JOHN DALY
When you postpone your decision for still doesn't get the answer for fear you'll say no, and it will then be too late to ask another girl to take your place. And if you decide to go, about mid-afternoon on the day for which the date is scheduled, the fellow can't get tickets after all. Frequently fellows feel that there's no way for them to get out of the awkward situation in which the girl declines to make definite plans at the time he calls. They have one hope. If the girl says very hesitantly, "I'll let you know," tell her that you'll call the next day, or even later that day. Then, if she's still undecided on the second try you can continue yourself by saying: "Let's make it some other time, shall we?" Maybe she can make your plans for her or let you try again later.

Diocese Aids Child Training

Rochester, N. C. — (NC) — A diocese-wide "Committee for Child Training" has been organized here by Bishop Vincent S. Waters of Raleigh. Through him, Christ can be brought to society and society to the child. The committee aims at giving to young mothers the advice of the Church on bringing up their children during the formative years. As soon as a child is born to Catholic parents a member of the committee will call on the mother and offer her the services of the group. If she accepts, other members will call at intervals of two or three months and leave a pamphlet prepared by the committee which discusses problems encountered in bringing up a child at that particular age. "Religious education should begin as soon as the child is born," Bishop Waters said in announcing the formation of the committee. "The Catholic mother wants her grown children to have her with not only a complete knowledge of the Faith, but also a character strong enough to live a Catholic life in the face of a world which thinks only of pleasure."

Cardinal's Right to Vote Italian Official Upholds

Vatican City — (Radio, NC) — Refusal of Milan's socialist mayor to allow Alfredo Ildefonso Cardinal Schuster, O.S.B., Archbishop of Milan, to vote on the ground that the Cardinal is a citizen of Vatican City has been overruled by the Italian Minister of Interior. The Minister ruled, it was explained, that only the Cardinals who reside in Rome are considered citizens of Vatican City.
