

Persecution on Rise in Yugoslavia

ROME — (CIP) — Religious persecution in Yugoslavia which six weeks ago seemed to be somewhat receding, has become more intense again. Among the latest victims in Fiume (Northwestern Yugoslavia) were those of Rev. Alojzije Stepinac, superior of the Vincentian monastery of Fiume, and of another Vincentian Father, Rev. Blagoje. The latter has been also ordered by the Yugoslavian Ministry of Justice to be closed. In this case, the decision may be in part due to the fact that most of the monks were Serbs; Rev. Stepinac, however, is a Croat, and is a member of the Yugoslavian hierarchy.
