

48-Hour Census To Be Taken In St. Augustine's Parish

St. Augustine's Parish will conduct the "Forty-Eight Hour Census" on Sunday, April 26, the Rev. John M. Doyle, pastor, has announced. Some 200 workers will invade the confines of the parish territory, between 1 and 2, during the census period to be held here. Outlets for the census will be closed on Tuesday evening.

between the hour of 7 and 8, some 450 houses will be canvassed for Catholic residents Sunday afternoon. Parishioners have been urged to have no member of the family at home during the hour designated to receive the census. Again on Tuesday evening when the form will be collected. Sealed envelopes will be provided to guarantee secrecy. Each envelope will be stamped with the name of the parish and will be called upon parishioners have been asked to acquaint their non-Catholic neighbors with the plan. The "Forty-Eight Hour Census" originated in the Diocese of Brooklyn and has been used with success in many parishes in the East. Through the combined and co-ordinated efforts of a large number of the laity acting as voluntary census takers, the energy of priests and religious workers over a long period of time is saved and complete information concerning the spiritual condition of each member of the family is achieved in two days' time.
