5 Receive Habits of Mercy Nuns

In a simple and impressive ceremony presided over by the Superior, Bishop Kearney has young women received the habit of the Sisters of Mercy last Friday afternoon at the Monastery novitiate.

Addressing the young novices and their relatives and friends assembled in the convent chapel, the Bishop emphasized the dignity of their calling. He congratulated the persons placing on that they were singularly blessed to have Christ's friends at their door and cited one of the sayings of the Lord for his own special note.

Those receiving the habit were: Miss Elizabeth Quinn, 21, of Charles Street, new Sister Mary Bright; Miss Mary Keenan, of Belmont, Belmont; new Sister Mary Constance; Miss Leslie Lehard of Holy Cross, new Sister Mary Alphonsa; Miss Tolanda Francisco, of St. Michael's, new Sister Mary Teresa; Miss Dorothy Lorraine Johnson, of St. Michael's, new Sister Mary Name.

Present in the sanctuary were the Reverend Fathers Edward A. Kehoe, St. Charles; Lawrence S. Conroy and Joseph Gagnon, Holy Cross; Thomas F. Conroy, Belmont; Rev. Monsignor Paul G. Winkler, Holy Rosary; Arthur Pernot, St. Michael's; Frank W. Moran, St. Ambrose; John J. McNamee, Belmont; Fathers John T. Callahan and Patrick Murphy, Mercy Convent.

At Sodality Event

The annual Mother's Day Communion breakfast sponsored by St. John's Sodality will be held at Mary Train Hotel, Elmira, Sunday May 12, following reception of Holy Communion by Sodalites at the 8:30 Mass.

Attorney James L. Burns, president Elmira Catholic laymen, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Charles F. Hubbell, chairman, announced that following Mass, Madame John Kilmer Jr., Edward Kehlwein, Edmund Jaworski, John Macrae and the Misses Margaret Frederick, Agnes Kazack and Margaret Kennedy.

CHAPLAIN HOME FROM PACIFIC

U. S. Army Chaplain (Major) Leo J. Matunowski returned home to Rochester this week after almost four years of service. During 25 months overseas he served with the U. S. Service Forces in Australia, Dutch Indies and Leyte.

Sailing from Leyte aboard a troop ship Father Matunowski arrived at San Francisco on April 20. Despite his ship had a collision with another, it managed to make the recent tidal wave storm which struck the Hawaiian Islands.

Father Matunowski was assigned from the Army at Camp Dix, N.J., and will be on leave at home until July 21.

He is now awaiting reassignment to work in the States. Before joining the Army he was assistant pastor of St. Stanislaus Church, Rochester.

Francis Vialle, New Orleans, New Orleans (N.Y.), Rev. Joseph M. Amato, Chapel of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the new Apostolic Nuncio to Guatemala, spent a day in New Orleans on the way to his new post.

Norman O'Brien IS MCCORMICK COUNSEL

Washington — Norman A. O'Brien, Boston attorney, was elected permanent counsel of the National Council of Catholic Women at a spring conference here Saturday. Mrs. Walter McCormick, president, was reelected president.

Mr. O'Brien is a past president of the Massachusetts Democratic Party and former president of the Boston Catholic Charities Association. He also holds the rank of captain in the Signal Corps. He has been honored or nominated.

Addressing the young service men and their relatives and friends assembled in the convent chapel, the Bishop emphasized the dignity of their calling. He congratulated the persons placing on that they were singularly blessed to have Christ's friends at their door and cited one of the sayings of the Lord for his own special note.
