FRANK SHIELDS K. C. LEADER OF AUBURN DIES

Auburn — Frank H. Shields, 57, of North Street, died late Thursday in Mercy Hospital. He had been in poor health for some time. Mr. Shields, a native of Auburn, was one of the few surviving charter members of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus. He was past grand knight of that organization and a past faithful organizer of Auburn's Fourth Degree Assembly. He was state treasurer of the Knights and served in the council and committees for a number of years. He was a lifelong member of Holy Family Church and a past president of the Holy Name Society of that parish. For a number of years he conducted a men's furnishing store in Geneva Street and of late years has been connected with Auburn Dept. of Parks. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anne A. Shields, of Auburn; one son, Frank H. Shields, Jr., of Chicago; one daughter, Josephine Shields, of Chicago. The funeral was held Monday morning from the Mullen Funeral Home with services at Holy Family Church. Of the solemn Requiem Mass, Rev. Eugene McCarthy was celebrant. Rev. Alfred J. Conroy, sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery.
