Camp Villa Maria should be the answer for a summer vacation for your son or daughter. Certainly other camps have a natural waterfront—but in those that are under local auspices—your Catholic child—

Will be under the supervision of Sisters and selected Catholic Counselors and have the opportunity to attend daily Mass.

And they will not learn that even in hours of fun and recreation, their Catholic heritage should be the gift of which they can be proud.

Registrations are being made now. We would suggest—if you wish to avoid disappointment—that you list your prospective camper immediately. The telephone number is 258-2588. You may call at the Camp Office in the Federation Building.

And we do need both Junior and Senior Counselors for the Girl's Camp and Juniors for the Boy's. It will be excellent training for a high school or college student. You will be surprised how much of the support work will be used by them for a necessary in the future.

The Camp Executive Board held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 14. Just too late for us to report to you on it! We will let you know next week.

By the time this column reaches you—we hope to have gained our breath after our Tuesday—a such a season!

First—The Board of the League's picnic supper, business meeting and awarding of the prize in the donation project, being sponsored by them to help defray their expenses at the Rochester Retreat.

Second—Dinner served by the Committee of the Infant of Prague to the Recreation Commission. This period of relaxation was followed by the usual business session.

Next—The Friendly Visiting Committee's regular monthly meeting—and finally the Camp Executive Board.

Attention—Counselors! Your nominating committee for the June elections should be appointed at your May meetings. There

Catholics 3-Fold Maternal Care Stressed at Corning

Corning—Threefold maternal care as enjoyed by Catholics, who look for guidance and help not only to their natural mothers but also to their Blessed Mother, the Virgin Mary, and to their Holy Mother the Church, was the theme of a Mother's Day address delivered to members of the Vincentian Society of St. Vincent de Paul's parish at their first Communion breakfast, held here last Sunday.

Rev. Frederick Walz, assistant pastor, introduced C. F. Thomas, Corning Journal staff member, who delivered the address. Miss Helen Cumiskey, president of the newly-formed society, acted as chairman of the meeting, which included group singing with Miss Helene Allen at the piano and the reading of three poems and a summary of the story "Our Lady's Juggler" by Mrs. George Mitchell.

Arrangements for the breakfast, which enjoyed an unexpectedly large attendance, were made by a committee headed
