C. D. A. is Commended At Watkins Glen Jubilee Dinner

Watkins Glen — Silver Anniversary of Court Lourdes, Catholic Daughters of America of Watkins Glen, was observed with a banquet last Wednesday at the Jefferson Hotel here.

Rev. Augustine Aylward, C. S.S.R., of Geneva, principal speaker, discussed the duties and greatness of womanhood and the good accomplished through such an organization as the C. D. A.

Miss Naomi Ashley, lecturer of the court, acted as toastmistress introducing Charter members of the Court, the Misses Sarah Margaret, Julia and Helen Sullivan, Mrs. Louise Roering, Mrs. Harriet Coughlan, Mrs. Helen Moran, first grand regent, and Miss Mary Frank, present grand regent.

Miss Frank gave the address of welcome, and a brief talk was given by Miss Margaret Barrett, district deputy of Corning.

Attending the affair were 21 members of Court St. Joseph, Corning, and 18 members of Court St. Rita, Elmira. Among those were Miss Margaret Reibel, grand regent of Court St. Rita, Miss Elizabeth Heffernin, State Convent League chairman and grand regent-elect Mrs. Edna Griffin of Court St. Joseph.

K. C. Set Third Degree in Hornell

Hornell — Knights of Columbus Council, No. 968, will hold the Third Degree in Hornell on Sunday Afternoon, June 9, in the Federation Building at 3 o'clock. It is announced by Richard E. Matthews, District Deputy of the 51st District.

Candidates and members headed by the 4th Degree in Manor Guard will receive Holy Communion in a body in St. Ann's Church at the 8:30 Mass and will be followed by a Communion Breakfast in Hotel Sherwood.

The Degree will be exemplified by District Deputy Joseph J. Pulop of Union and his staff on approximately 100 candidates of the 51st District, comprising Hornell, Dansville and Wellsville.

Grand Knight Francis Keenan has appointed Past Grand Knights Harold A. Negus and Geo. E. Lares co-chairmen on arrangements.

Following the Degree Luncheon will be served in the Club Rooms.

Sycamore Diocese Plans Agricultural School

Salem, Fla. — (NC) — A new school of agriculture under Catholic auspices, the first of its kind in the Diocese of Sycamore, will be opened at a summer estate near here, recently purchased by Bishop William J. Hafey of Sycamore.

For the present enrollment in the school will be limited to boys from St. Michael's Industrial and Agriculture School, Havana Heights, Fla., which will use the estate for its extension department. Special courses in soil treatment, animal husbandry, fruit cultivation and forestry will be offered. It was announced that no hopes later to make the course available to other young men of the diocese.

Chief Tokyo Judge Often Communicant

Tokyo — (NC) — The tall, well-built man in civilian clothes who may be seen receiving Holy Communion at a Mass for Army personnel or with the Japanese in the Catholic University chapel here every morning is Sir William Webb, Chief Justice of Queensland and president of the International Military Tribunal which was convened in Tokyo.

Now in his sixties, Sir William is the son of a Canadian father and an Irish mother, Catherine Gurney from Cork. He received his early education from the Sisters of Mercy. He is married and has six children. His sister is a Sister of Mercy.

First Irish Envoy Reaches Vatican

Vatican City — (Radio, NC)— Joseph P. Walshe, Ireland's first Ambassador to the Holy See and the first diplomat of that rank in the Irish foreign service, has arrived in Rome to assume his duties. He succeeds Dr. Thomas Kiernan, who held the rank of Minister. Mr. Walshe served as secretary of the Department of Foreign Affairs in Dublin previous to his appointment to the Vatican post.

Fr. Cleary Tells CDA Nations Must Turn to Christ

Ithaca — Greed on the part of men which extended to all nations was the cause of the recent world conflict, the Rev. Donald M. Cleary, Catholic chaplain at Cornell declared at the 32nd annual anniversary dinner of Court Santa Maria 240, Catholic Daughters of America, Thursday evening.

Father Cleary recently returned from European service with the Army Air Forces, spoke at Hotel Ithaca on "Christ, the Basis of World Peace."

"Christ is being completely ignored in all of the meetings which nations are having today," Father Cleary stated. "As long as the ignoring of Christ and his principles continues we are not going to see any kind of peace."

"Nations are weary and peace cannot come until Christ is brought into the lives of individuals and nations."

Speaks for Pastor

The program opened with the singing of "America" and invocation by the Rev. John T. Walsh, assistant pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Mrs. Margaret Goodspeed, grand regent, welcomed members and guests and introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. Edith Geetchius. Father Walsh conveyed to the group the regrets of the court chaplain, the Rev. William Byrne, at his inability to be present. He also expressed appreciation for the court's co-operation with the priests in the youth movement which will be continued at a later date.

After Father Cleary's address, Mrs. Mary Bell Deeley, accompanied by Mrs. George Fahey, sang and Miss Carol Jean Fahey gave two clarinet solos.

Community singing was led by Miss Margaret Kelly with Mrs. Fahey at the piano. Dinner music was furnished by members of Sigma Alpha Iota of Ithaca College. Mrs. Edward Moore and Mrs. Francis Grady were chairmen of the dinner assisted by the following committee: Mesdames Anthony Mastro, Frank Spedding, Charles Smith, George Fahey, Joseph Farley, George Senecal, Walter Fisher, Clarence Shriner, and John McCarthy, and Miss Anne Tresley.

Flats Secrecy

Washington — (INS) — Sumner Welles, former undersecretary of state assails secrecy at Big Four Paris Conference: "The kind of secrecy which is maintained at Paris prevents popular understanding. It gives rise to leaks, to rumors and to false reports. It prevents the people from having a voice in the decisions being reached."

Catholic Daughters List Social Monday

Seneca Falls — Court Seneca Falls, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold a social in the School Auditorium next Monday evening at 8 p. m. Miss Teresa McGrain, Grand Regent, has appointed Mrs. Ada Adonna as chairman for the evening. An entertainment program will follow the social.
