CHARITY IN ELMIRA—Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD
Do you know? We would really like to try and answer some of your questions about the Dominican Society?

We will try to take the questions in the order of their frequency. First—"What do the Sisters do?"

The reason why—God has been good to us and to others—when we are in the midst of our preparation for our recent education in the beautiful of Dominican life.

Why? Because for us in Elmira — for twenty-one months — day and night—every hour — each minute—a white-robed Sister kneels before a tiny tabernacle on Rosary Hill — praying for you and for us — and for each and every soul in this city.

Why — because for us in Elmira — for twenty-one months — day and night—every hour — each minute—a white-robed Sister kneels before a tiny tabernacle on Rosary Hill — praying for you and for us — and for each and every soul in this city.

You may write — or telephone 6308. Your letter can be mailed — left at the Catholic Charities Office in the Federation Building — or delivered to the Monastery. Also you are invited to meet the Dominican Sisters. Just ring the bell in the doorway.

K. C. Set Third Degree in Hornell

Hornell — Knights of Columbus Council, No. 243, will hold the Third Degree in Hornell on Sunday afternoon, June 3, in the Federation Building at a 7 o'clock hour.

Candidates and members headed by the Alt. Degree as Honor Guard will receive Holy Communion in a body in St. Ann's Church at 12:30 noon and will be followed by a Convent Breakfast in Hotel Howard.

Grand Knight Francis Keenan has appointed Past Grand Knight Harold A. Hogue and Geo. S. Lacey co-chairmen on arrangements.

Fr. Healey Assists At Navy Base Mission

Daniel Healey, Navy Operating Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba held a mission for the Catholic personnel recently, the second mission in its 30 years existence.

Chaplain Robert Quinn, U.S.N., R. 1, priest from the diocese of Sioux City, Iowa, the base chaplain, held an ex-cramin chaplain from the First World War to conduct the exercises.

The attendance for the week in personnel reached the high mark of 2064. The number of Holy Communion received speaks for itself, 2068. The success of this mission was due to the assistance of the Rev. Robert Quinn, U.S.N., to the hearty cooperation of the Commanding Officer, Commodore G. S. Eastle, Jr., U.S.N., to chief of staff, Lt. F. Patten, U.S.N., and to Col. F. W. Whitley, U.S.M.C.

Elmira Catholic High Activities

By HELEN BADDION
Nine students from Elmira Catholic High School attended a Socially High Meeting at Geneva Sunday.

The officers were elected for the coming year, 1946-47. Elmira Catholic High School was the school from which the treasurer will be elected.

Representatives from Catholic High were: Matthias Fennell, Edward Rose, Cornelius Miller, Jerome Hogan, Mary Caspala, Ellen Hurley, Betty Higgins, Helen Casey and Camilla Malone. They were accompanied by Rev. William A. Burns.

Under Day Scheduled
The Junior Day Committee, composed of Eugene Agan, Kathleen Marchnock, Michael Comstock, Edward Rose, Joan Cunningham and Kathleen O'Hara, have announced the following Junior Day program:

Invocation.
Welcome—Eugene Agan, Junior Day President.

Class Song.
The Junior Oratorical Contest.
Play—"I Can Use the Money."

Fatherly Advice—Jerome Hogan, Junior Day President.

The cast of the play includes: Michael Comstock, Kathleen Marchnock, Edward Rose, Kathleen Fennell, Teresa Ann Connelly, Charles Brann.

30,000 at Youth Meeting
Paris — (RNS) — Eighty thousand children attended an annual reunion staged here by the Valley Hearts Association for boys and the Valley Souls Association for girls, two Catholic youth groups which operate social clubs to keep boys and girls off the streets.

The dates by the way, are June 21 to July 1. More than sixty girls have already signed their intention to be among the "Hearts."

And you, Ladies of Charity and all Catholic women — are invited to make a closed Retreat — available at the same convent of the Sacred Heart in Rochester.

The dates of these retreats are June 21 to the 24 and July 4 to the 7. Call us for details — we will be happy to talk with you. This weekend rendezvous with Jesus is an experience you would like you all to share.

The case committee of Catholic Charities will meet on Monday, May 28, instead of on the 29, as originally scheduled. Dinner, which will be served prospectively at 8:30 by the Committee of the Board of Finance, will be followed by a business session.

The Chairman, Miss Mary A. Newkome, urges each member of the committee to attend. She adds, "The Catholic Charities is facing problems, more intricate and perplexing than ever before — our counsel and advice is urgently needed — we are privileged to help — let us not overlook this call to service."

Dr. John F. Lynch, Chairman, has expressed the wish that each Director be present. This means clergy and lay alike — those who are charged with the "stewardship" for those whom Catholic Charities are privileged to serve.

School Musical At St. Anthony's

The annual school entertainment will be presented by the children of St. Anthony's school in the church hall on Sunday and Monday, May 27-28.

This year's program will take the form of an original musical, titled "The Bells of St. Anthony's" and the theme will be centered around the parish.

The children have been trained for the play by the Sisters of the school and the parents have aided in preparing the elaborate costumes to be worn. Many novelty numbers will be offered, including playlets with unusual scenic and lighting effects.
