TRIDUUM LISTED TO ST. ANTHONY

Solemn triduum in honor of St. Anthony will open at St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, Monday evening, June 10, and will continue to Thursday evening, June 13. Father Dominic Grande, a Priest from Springville, Mass., will conduct the triduum with services each evening in Italian and English. The services in Italian will begin at 8:00 each evening and those in English at 9:00. Masses each morning at 7:30 and 8:00.

Services will consist of novenas to St. Anthony, novenas, Benediction at the Most Blessed Sacrament and recitation of the rosary of St. Anthony.

Solemn closing exercises will take place Thursday evening at both services.

This triduum will also mark the close of the nine Tuesday Novenas which has been in progress for the past weeks.

CHARITY IN ELMIRA—Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

This will be brief! To try and tell you about "Charity in Elmira" at this point would be like "adding" while home burns. Life is too involved—demands upon us too many—we just do the next thing ahead of us—and we certainly can't take much time to tell you about it.

Tuesday, May 22—all of us who said "It can't happen here" learned to the contrary and to our sorrow at that.

Determined to carry on and give help where it was needed most, we stayed at our posts. Finally, we had to give up. Lights, telephones and heat vanished, transportation was out—bought by car and on foot.

National Nurses Pick Rochester Unit Head

Charles E. Carroll, spiritual director; Miss Maly, who is president of the local group; Miss Mary Anderson, treasurer; Marie Pink; Jane Howe; Mary Henderson; Sylvia Marshall; Arlene Stebbins; Geraldine Casey; Stella O'Brien; Betty Sierby; Margaret O'Connell; and Mary Doyle.

The Rev. Gregory Dugan and the Rev. David Singsdorf with Margaret Callahan and Mary Mulvaney represented the Auburn Unit. Delegates from Elmira included Sister Mary Roberts and Sister Julian Francis.

The theme of the Convention "The Catholic Nurse in a Changing World" was carried out by a number of speakers.

In the welcome address, Miss Anna V. Mueck, re-elected National President, expressed her appreciation to the Catholic Nurses for the hospital service they have during the war in the military and civilian fields.

Necessities and benefits of organized work were stressed in a message by the Rev. James P. Laguna, National Spiritual Director.

"The Catholic Nurse in a Changing World" was the topic picked by the Most Rev. J. F. Noll, D.D., Episcopal Director, in which he clearly portrayed the spiritual responsibility of the Catholic Nurse.

Other officers elected at the convention were: Miss Katella Stearns, Los Angeles, first vice president; Mother Mary Magdalene, Elizabeth, Ill., religious life; board member; and Miss Ann K. Burns, Davenport, Iowa, and Miss Gertrude Meyer, Baltimore, lay board members.

Weddings in Corning

News - Adair Corning - The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Brown, 222 W. Water St., Painted Post, and Joseph V. Adair, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adair of Houston, Tex., took place Saturday, May 26, in St. Ann's Church, Corning, N. Y. The Rev. Joseph F. Smith, pastor, performed the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Deane Kiefer of Mountain Lake.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Kiefer home after which the couple left by motor for a trip through the Southern states.

The bride is a graduate of Painted Post High School, is a member of the Alpha Chapter of the Order of Nursing, New York City. Mr. Adair, who served three years with the Merchant Marine, holding a rank equivalent to that of Lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy, is now a student at the University of Texas.

Stephens - Brian Miss Betty Mary Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Stephens, 215 Sly Ave., and Dayton E. Brian, son of Mrs. Hazel Brian, 108 Sly Ave., and the late Mr. Brian, were united in marriage Saturday, June 1, in the rectory of St. Vincent de Paul's Church. The Rev. Frederick Walk, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony.

Miss Helen G. Stephens of Southold was maid of honor and Stephen A. Brian, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families of the couple at the Crystal Grill following the ceremony. Later Mr. and Mrs. Brian left by motor for a trip through the New England States.

The bride is a graduate of Northport High School, and Gray's Business School. She has been employed in the Cost Department of the Ingersoll-Rand Company at Painted Post. Mr. Brian attended school in Jersey Shore, Pa., and is employed by the New York Central Railroad Company here.

Stephens - Annal Miss Sophie Ann Respekt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Respekt, 121 E. Market St., became the bride of Donald T. Annal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Romulo Annal, 27 W. Second St., Saturday, May 25, in St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John A.

400 AT WATKINS CEMETERY MASS

Watkins Glen - Rev. Thomas Brennan of St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester, rekindled 400 members of St. Mary's Church here of their responsibility to their dead at an outdoor Memorial Day Mass in St. Mary's Cemetery.

"We are reminded," said Father Brennan, "of the debt the citizens of this country owe to the brave men of all our wars who have fought in military services." He compared the observance of Memorial Day to that of All Souls Day.

Not satisfied with "decking the graves of our dead," he declared, "we will be careful to pray for their eternal rest."

And the dead from out their graves can do us the living this service: they can in silent silence participate in all the Masses, Holy Communion, Divine Office, Rosaries, Night and Day, the Stations of the Cross and other prayers and good works offered by the members of the Elmira Dominican Community.

This may sound like a subtle talk - but the goods are on the gold standard. Won't you call the Monastery, Dial 6506 or your reporter at 2-7197, if you have any questions.

And as for the Ladies of Charity! Might we remind you - that each and every phase of our program is Charity! It is a twelve month schedule - and in these days of Flood Disaster - we should not fail to see the forest because of the trees.

Old people must be visited, the County Farm family need cheering. Conversation, Little Sisters' mass, Big Sisters, and so on, throughout each and every project of this organization - whose program includes each and every spiritual and corporal work of mercy.

Cardinals Give Precious Rosaries

Providence, R. I. (NC) - For what is believed the first time in history three Rosaries have been cast in the precious metal, palladium, by a jewelry designer here. The metal is the twin of platinum and rarer than gold. The rosaries have been sent to their Eminences Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit; Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, and Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, to commemorate their elevation to the Sacred College of Cardinals.

Our destiny like theirs is one day to die.

"The dead call out from the cemetery warning us to live well that we may die well."

Celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Edmund Bowen, C.S.S.R., of the Geneva Retreat House, assisted by the Rev. Walter Kohl, pastor.
