Recently in this column I speculated briefly upon what the reader is willing to endure...

Principles Talked Not 'Politics'

But, undeterred, he continues to give to his own people and to the world the benefit of the knowledge he acquired from practical experience...

Yardstick

By Rev. Geo. A. Higgins

About a year ago Mr. Stuart Chase published a little book, "Democracy Under Pressure" in which he unmasked the selfishness of economic pressure groups in the United States...

A Bow To Mr. Bowles

By Rev. Geo. A. Higgins

At least two observations on Mr. Bowles' program are in order. In the first place, few, if any of these wartime advisory councils were given enough authority and responsibility...

Washington - The loosely drawn tax laws of this nation are steadily contributing to the harboring of Communist propaganda...

Every day and every week scores of releases and pamphlets - some mimeographed, some printed on high-quality paper - arrive at the desks of editors and writers...

Look at the last figure again. That is the approximate cost of running a full-page ad once in more than one hundred large daily newspapers...

These if you want to contribute to the notorious anti-Catholic propaganda monthly known as the Protestant, you simply send them a check for your share of the cost of your income tax.

It must be added that these laws also enable the right-wing fanatic fringe to do the same thing. Just at present they do not have the resources, the reserves, nor the friends in high places to help them along...

Disciples - They would become disciples of the Lord. It is not possible to imagine with the right of any citizen to possess his political opinions...

Farley Disturbed - New York - (INS) - James A. Farley, former Postmaster General, recently has become disturbed and distressed to see men in public office...

Churchill on Spain

Here is the opinion of Winston Churchill on the Spanish question as expressed in a House of Commons debate on Britain's foreign policy last week...

As We See It

Judging the Judges and the Courts

In a rare display of unanimity, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that the press is free to criticize courts and judges...

By Don Patrick

Too long have we left court decisions go by default, as far as editorial comment is concerned. And the few incompetent judges now sitting become emboldened by such inaction...

Statements to Be Remembered

"It is because your nation and mine are friends in the best sense of the world and because you and I are sincerely desirous of the continuation of that friendship for our mutual good that I want very simply to tell you of the compelling reasons that have forced me to send a powerful American military force to the assistance of the French possessions in North Africa."

Churchill on Spain

It is said that every nation gets the government it deserves. Obviously that does not apply in the case of Great Britain. But I have a sort of feeling that the Spanish people had better be left to work out their own salvation...

Churchill on Spain

What is to happen when our Ambassador is withdrawn? Our trade with Spain is very valuable. We shall have to go on trading with Spain, even if we suppose that when we have withdrawn our Ambassador we shall have to have commercial counselors in order to remain in contact with one of the oldest and now least aggressive nations of the world...

Churchill on Spain

You may be sure that the 25,000,000 living in that great peninsula would be in some contact with the outer world even if there were no Ambassadors there. I should have thought we had enough trouble without getting into such futile entanglements.
