

Thrilling Mystery Promised By H. R. Theater Guild Cast

"Thrills, chills and laughs" are in order for Friday and Saturday evenings, June 14 and 15, when the Holy Redeemer Parish Theater Guild presents "Out of the Night," a real blood-curdling murder mystery.

The action takes place in a creepy, old hunting lodge in Maine in the dead of winter with cracking doors, a secret panel, strange noises, a mysterious person and a murder here and there, all of which adds up to a full evening's enjoyment, the committee states.

Raymond Wirth, general chairman, has named the following committees:
