Missioner Bound for Burma Visits Sister in Rochester

Rev. James Mannering, M.S., brother of Sister M. Johanna of the School Sisters of Notre Dame, of SS. Peter and Paul's School, is scheduled to leave soon for the Missions of Araken, Burma.

A Missionary of Our Lady of LaSalette, Father Mannering has just completed a visit with his sister and friends in Rochester.

Stationed for three years in the East Texas Missions, he now faces, with five companion priests, the task of rebuilding a mission almost totally destroyed by the war.

Churches, schools and orphanages in the Burma mission have been destroyed. Most of the priests have been forced because of poor health, to return to this country. One was murdered by bandits and another almost blinded by malnutrition and three years in a concentration camp where he spent 18 months in solitary confinement. The three remaining priests are badly in need of relief after three years of Jap prisons and await replacements.

The LaSalette Fathers will leave this country as soon as visas are obtained sailing directly to India for a mission period of 10 years in a territory of over 1,500,000 souls.

Mass Offered For Sergeant Lost in Japan

Solemn Requiem Mass for T/Sgt. Joseph F. Stinardo, 26, presumed to have died after his plane was shot down May 25, 1945, over Tokyo, Japan, was offered Wednesday, June 19, 1946, in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church.

J. Stinardo

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stinardo, 264 Sawyer St., Sergeant Stinardo was radio-gunner on a B-29 Superfortress raiding the Japanese port from a Tinian base. When the bomber was caught in anti-aircraft fire over the Imperial Palace, the crew bailed out, but only two of the men were found after Japan's surrender.

In service since May, 1938, the sergeant had served two years in the Panama Canal Zone where he met and married the former Josephine Grande of Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama. Mrs. Stinardo and a 2-year-old daughter, Shirley, still reside there.

Veteran of four battles, he had earned the Air Medal with three clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Surviving also are three brothers, Samuel, John and James Stinardo and three sisters, Mrs. Anthony Nocera, Mrs. Pat Fiola and Mrs. Lucy Lipani, all of Rochester.

BRENNAN HEADS HOLY NAME UNIT

Auburn — John F. Brennan was elected president of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church at a recent meeting held in the school library.

Joseph P. Nolan will be vice president, Hugh R. Kimball who has acted as recording secretary of the society for 34 years was reelected, to that post and Raymond M. Kenney will be secretary-treasurer of the organization for the sixth term. Both Mr. Brennan and Mr. Nolan served with the forces during World War II and recently received their honorable discharges.

Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, pastor, and Rev. Eugene McCarthy, spiritual advisor of the Holy Name Society, spoke briefly. Plans for events during the coming year were formulated.

Dachshunds Featured At Roseland Park

Canandaigua — The only person to train Daschunds successfully, Mrs. Woolford and her troupe of 12 performers, will be the feature attraction at Roseland Park during the week of June 24.

Mrs. Woolford's success has been the result of tutoring by her father, Alf Loyal, chief trainer of dogs for the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey combined circus, for the past 20 years.

Control of her Daschunds, performing in a group and executing difficult routines, is said to be sensational. This attraction is promised to delight the kiddies and interest the grown-ups as well.
