Leaders Thanked

"Thank you to our Girl Scout leaders, those hundreds of women who guide you in your Scout program, these Girl Scout leaders who are the greatest volunteers in the world; thank you to the men and women in our community who believe in us and support us. And why? Because Girl Scouting is not just a leisure time activity. It is a way of growing up.

"Girl Scouting is a way of growing into more intelligent and useful citizens, better equipped and more successful homemakers. Simply saying 'thank you' is not enough. We must pledge ourselves once more to put our laws into action. We do this by really living our Girl Scout laws and promises — not just saying them over again each week. We do it by working at them, by putting them into action."

The Girl Scout entertainment was given by Natalie Petrus, Shirley Green, Beverly Toomey, Marion Lockern and Patricia Andrews. A Scout play written by the girls of Troop 35 was presented and Troop 36 danced the Virginia Reel. Gerald Conroy was at the piano. Trustee Hosley concluded the program with his display of magic.
