CHARITY IN ELMIRA—
Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

Yes — they came! Bright and Early — the "small fry" started to register for Camp Villa Maria — on Monday morning. They are still arriving as this goes to press with the probability that the registration for both camps will be closed within a few days.

What will they eat? Well, we are a little worried but we are also busy with shopping. Most of our supplies will be purchased before July 15. Some of our meat is already under refrigeration. There will be plenty to eat. We promise that.

Spreading of mink — The Rev. George J. Vogel, Reverend Director of the Boys' Camp will be assisted by several able leaders including Men Egan, Charles P. Scola and James E. Taylor of the Waterfront, Lawrence Ward for Crafts, Joe Wauters on Nature and John Hume supervising Sports.

Camp fire will be planned by Joe Dalley and Camp Stoves by Tom Flork and Jack Finch. All on this staff will be those Elmira young men who were so popular and efficient last year.

1946, but not least — It's Catholic — and that, may I suggest, is in the type of Camp in which your son or daughter belongs.

It's convincing — to think about the summer projects which many of our committees are considering. We like to have you make your own plans. It makes for more interest if you select a program. In this event, however, that you need any help — you will always find us ready with a list of possibilities.
