38 Holy Family High Graduates Receive Diplomas from Bishop

Auburn—Their sons and daughters were being given back to them, after four years, richer because of the knowledge and discipline of Holy Family High School, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney told parents as he conferred diplomas on 38 boys and girls, graduates of that high school, Wednesday.

The Bishop who spoke at the 30th annual Commencement of Holy Family High School in the School auditorium, praised the parents of the graduates for recognizing the value of a Catholic education.

"We give them back to you," the Bishop said, "as though they came from the Holy Family,—Jesus, Mary and Joseph."

Speaking on the influence of the Holy Spirit, His Excellency recalled first meeting members of the graduating class when he came to Auburn 4 years ago to offer the Mass of the Holy Ghost for them at the beginning of their high school career. Catholic education was compared with the Holy Family,—Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The Bishop said that all during their years at Holy Family they had been given a true education. No one had tried to destroy their belief in God.

He reminded the class of 1946 that they as members could never forget Holy Family High. "You will carry the memory of it away for the rest of your lives. It will be part of you. Pledge yourselves to be loyal always to the Holy Family,—Jesus, Mary and Joseph."

Speak for Graduates

The graduates marched to their places on the stage to the processional "Land of Hope and Glory" from "Pomp and Circumstances." Miss Joan Kelley, salutatorian of the class of 1946 spoke on the life of "Blessed Francesca Cabrini." The chorus under the direction of Mrs. John Hohman then sang "Cherubin Song."

James Cuddy, valedictorian of the class, spoke on the life of "Alfred E. Smith." Following this the chorus sang "I Am Proud to Be an American." Rev. Dr. Charles J. Mahoney, superintendent of schools in the Rochester diocese, extended felicitations to the graduates and Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, V. F., pastor of Holy Family Church, welcomed Bishop Kearney. Rev. William E. Davis presented the members of the class who received their diplomas from Bishop Kearney, assisted by Father Davis. The Bishop's address was followed by the singing of the "Alma Mater." The Recessional "Marche Heroique de Jeanne d'Arc" was played by the organist, Miss Kathleen Flunkert.

Special awards were given to Miss Olga Casalleggio who received a mark of 92 in religion and 95.7 in French; James Cuddy who received the scholarship award with a mark of 92.6, 91.3 in Science and 94 in Mathematics; Miss Mary Holcombe with a mark of 96.8 in dramatics; Miss Joan Kelly with a mark of 95 in Latin, 94.2 in English and 94 in social studies. Awards were also given to Raymond Baier and Frances Leonard, prefect and vice-prefect of the Sodality of Holy Family High School.

The class also received the following scholarships: Joan Kelly an $800 scholarship to Good Counsel College; James Cuddy an $800 scholarship to Niagara University, and Elizabeth Guiney, Mary Holcombe and Eileen Maloney, each received an $800 scholarship to Misericordia College. Highest averages in each class were as follows: Senior, James Cuddy, 92.6; Junior, Paul Luckern, 90.3; Sophomore, Jane Yvonne Koenen, 95.3; Freshman, Patricia Casper, 96.8.

The Albertus Magnus Club 1945-1946 section was composed of Richard Bowen, Attracta Brennan, Patricia Casper, James Cuddy, Maura Cuddy, Helen Fogarty, Joan Hayes, Jane Yvonne Koenen, Joan Klink, Jean O'Hara and Joy Whitwer.

Among the 38 graduates who received their diplomas was one veteran of World War II, Raymond Riordan. The class officers were: President, James Cuddy; vice president, Olga Casalleggio; secretary, Paula Cook; treasurer, James Pitcher.

Baptist Leader Charges Reds Would Oust Religion

Ridgecrest, N.C. — (RNS) — The Russian government is trying, little by little, to abolish religion, Dr. W. O. Lewis, of Washington, D.C., general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, declared here in a speech which marked the first time in recent years that a major Baptist leader has openly attacked the Soviet regime.

Speaking before the Southside Young Woman's Auxiliary Camp meeting, Dr. Lewis asserted that although the Russian people are permitted to go to church, the government has underhanded methods of demolishing religion. He explained that these range from arresting ministers as spy suspects on Saturday nights in order to prevent them from attending church services on Sunday to beating Clergymen.

Dr. Lewis added that in the Baltic states the Russians had collected Bibles from the people and converted them into pulp to relieve the paper shortage.

There are an estimated 4,000,000 Baptists in Russia, the largest Protestant denomination.
