CHARITY IN ELMIRA Jottings Here and There

Definitely yes! Ladies of Charity in Elmira are busy as ever. They are busy with the summer work, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit. They are busy with the summer work, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit.

Why are we privileged to supply food to the Dominican Monastery? What would they do if we did not sponsor them? They are busy with the summer work, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit.

Question No. 2 - We were chosen by the Rev. Gerald C. Lambert, with the approval of His Excellency, the Most Reverend James E. Kearney, to act as guardians in the Dominican States. It is a privilege - a favor - a golden investment.

No - we are not bound by any contract. Yes - we can stop tomorrow. Certainly, they will eat anyway. Of course, it will not be a very generous diet - the Dominicans may purchase food, using the money which they receive as alms.

K. OF C. HEAD APPOINTS AIDES

Lodiaco, William J. Schiefen and Samuel LeMark; Lecturer, Ralph C. Reed; House, Richard J. Moxley; Organist, James L. Tunney; stick, Carl C. Carr.

Publicly, Thomas F. Coggins Jr.; billiards, Thomas F. Rhoads; cards, Joseph DeNunzio; finance, Basil J. Villanovait; ignition, Francis F. O'Brien; Catholic Affairs, James D. Barrett; First Friday Luncheon, David Vincent Sheehan and Charles J. Kromer; ways and means, Edward C. J. Martin; Booster Club, Thomas F. Coggins Jr.

Quebec Welcomes Toronto Cardinal

Quebec - (NC) - On his way back to Toronto after a visit to Charlevoix, Prince Edward Island and Antigonish, N. S., His Eminence James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, was honored at a city-wide welcome and other ceremonies here.

A liturgical reception was held in Notre Dame Basilica where Cardinal McGuigan, speaking in French, will tribute to his colleagues and recalled that the letter had studied for the priesthood at the Quebec Seminary. Responding in French, Cardinal McGuigan spoke of the unity of the Church and of the friendship between two great races in Canada.

Activities are to be many - Counselors will be fun - A last week of gay happiness before the school bells ring. Days of "leave free" hours on the glorious heights of Harris Hill. Parents - don't believe me! Ask your pastor. Where should my child go to camp? Should I trust the soul of my son or daughter during the days of vacation time - to a camp where each child regularly participates in Protestant religious service.

That if you are interested in a week of worthwhile vacation, under Catholic supervision, for your young son or daughter. You should call at the Camp Carandaigua.
