17 Are Received Into Sisters Of St. Joseph

Habit of the Sisters of St. Joseph was presented to 17 young women and the Perpetual vows of a class of 23 Novices were received by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney in two impressive ceremonies at the Holy Family Chapel in Nazareth Convent, Pittsford, Tuesday, July 2.

The Bishop was assisted by the Rev. Dr. John E. Manney and the Rev. Joseph Lynch. The Novices were completing their six years of novitiate training.

Parents of the Novices and newly professed were congratulated by Bishop Kearney on the honor bestowed upon their homes.

Addressed by Bishop: "We who dedicate our lives to the service of Jesus Christ are deeply conscious of the fact that we have not only accepted great honor on us but great responsibility," the Bishop said.

"You will have a certain number of souls; the shedding of Christ's Blood for their salvation will be part of the problem of your lives to this extent — that every thought, word and action that brings them any closer to Jesus Christ is proof that you are faithful to your responsibility of applying to their souls the merits of the shedding of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ upon the cross."

Therefore, every recurring July should be deeply significant to you, not simply because it recalls the anniversary of your reception and profession, but especially because it will recall for you the part that you play day by day in the application to the souls of little children or of grown women, of the merits of the shedding of Christ's Precious Blood on Calvary.

Among the 17 young women receiving the Habit is one named after Mother Cabrini who is canonized Sunday. Those invested with the Habit and their names in religion are: Olivia Shannon, St. Mary's, Elmira; Sister Margaret Helene Veda Speks, St. Anthony's, Elmira; Sister Margaret Ursuline, Margaret Hanly, St. Mary's, Corning; Sister Michael Ann Theresa Collins, St. Cecilia's, Elmira; Sister Daniel Louise, Sister Anthonia, St. Michael's, Rochester; Sister M. Collins; Harjorie Knapp, St. Patrick's, Danville; Sister Theresa Daniel; Elizabeth Kosty, St. Patrick's, Corning; Sister Robert Mary; Margaret LaShomb, St. John Evangelist, Pulaski; Sister Margaret Charles; Dorothy Muldoon, St. Alphonsus, Auburn; Sister Dorothy Ellen.
