

CHARITY IN ELMIRA— Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD
Ladies of Charity do carry on — throughout the summer. The poor in heart, the lonely, the sick, we have all ways with us.

Why are we privileged to supply food to the Dominican Monastery? What would they do if we did not sponsor them?

Question No. 1 — We were chosen by the Rev. Gerard G. Lambert, with the approval of the Excellence of the Most Reverend James J. Keenan, to act as guardians to the Dominican Sisters. It is a privilege — a favor — a golden investment, which pays unlimited dividends.

No — we are not bound by any contract. Yes — we can stop tomorrow. Certainly, they will not be a very generous diet — the Dominicans may purchase food, using the money which they receive as alms.

And — we sincerely hope that any Lady of Charity who is not wholly in sympathy with our Dominican Family, will realize that she may still, even though she is not in sympathy with this great spiritual work of mercy.

Elections continue. Mrs. John (Mary) Murphy succeeds Mrs. Ruth Wittschlager as Chairman of Our Bishop's Committee of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Selected as Co-Chairmen, Treasurer and Secretary respectively are Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Joseph Milliken and Mrs. Edward Davis.

To Mrs. Wittschlager, who with her husband, has taken up a permanent residence in Auburn — goes our sincere wishes for much happiness in her new home.

To these wishes, we add our grateful thanks for her splendid cooperation and Louis de Marillac spirit in her every participation in the Ladies of Charity program.

Goodbye — no Air Travel! With Good Luck, Good Speed and Good Speed.

In closing, we remind you that the registration for Camp Villa Maria is still open. Applications are coming in fast — so we suggest that if you are interested in a week of worthwhile vacation, under Catholic supervision, for your young son or daughter — You should call at the Camp Office in the Education Building immediately.

Boys — must be eight years of age — and girls are to have passed their ninth birthday.

Activities are to be many — Counselors will be fun — A fast week of gay happiness before the school bells ring. Days of care free hours on the glorious heights of Harris Hill.

Parents — don't believe me! Ask your pastor — Where should my child go to camp? Should I entrust the soul of my son or daughter during the days of vacation time — to a Camp where each child regularly participates in Protestant religious services.

Sure — it's darling! But seventeen years of social work has taught me the importance of it. We will fill camp. That doesn't worry me — but a lot of other things do.

Aids Vocations

U. S. Catholics Aid Lauded in England

London — (NC) — A special tribute to the Catholics of the United States for their help to the British Commonwealth and the fact that has been published here in the latest British Catholic news review.

American Catholics are playing a "perhaps too little appreciated part" in responding to Europe's call for food, the British article stated.

"Those who benefit are not only Catholics — the fact that to many non-Catholics will be cat-
