St. Bona Priest Elected Director by Theologians

St. Bonaventure, N. Y. — The Very Rev. David Baier, O.F.M., Superior of the Franciscan Community at St. Bonaventure, and Dean of Theology at Christ the King Seminary, was elected one of six Directors of the newly-formed American Catholic Theological Society.

Last week about 100 members attended the Twoday session of the First National Convention of the ACTS, following a Pontifical Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, at which His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman presided and welcomed them.

The purpose of the new organization, which was formed last January at a meeting of 33 priests who are professors of theology, is to bring together those engaged in teaching and others interested in Sacred Theology, and through cooperation, work towards increased interest and a more effective presentation of Catholic theology in the modern world.

Father David Baier, a native of Rochester, attended St. Andrew and St. Bernard Seminaries in that city, and received his Doctorate of Theology from the University of Muenster. For about two decades he has been teaching Dogmatic Theology and Liturgy at St. Bonaventure Seminary. He has also contributed articles to numerous theological and liturgical magazines, and has also written articles for the Catholic Encyclopedia. His translation entitled "Catholic Liturgies" now in its second edition.

Weddings In Corning

Dyer - Weller

Corning — The marriage of Miss Gertrude Z. Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dyer, 323 E. Third St., and John O. Weller, son of Mrs. Eva Weller, 289 E. Market St., took place Saturday, June 29, in St. Patrick's Church. The Rev. E. A. Rawlinson, pastor, performed the ceremony.

Miss Ann Dowling, of Corning, was maid of honor, Mrs. Beulah Box, matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Jeannette Kroigstein and Miss Marian Chase. Robert Fitzgerald was best man and Arthur Scheb and Joseph Shinhats were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Crystal Grill after which Mr. and Mrs. Weller left by motor for Chehalis, Wash.

The bride, a graduate of St. Patrick's School and Northside High School, has been employed at the J. J. Newberry Store. Mr. Weller, who attended Corning Free Academy, was recently discharged from the Navy and is now employed at the Ingersoll-Rand plant in Painted Post. They will live at 323 E. Third St.

DeLaura - Landolf

Miss Angelina DeLaura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael DeLaura, 189 E. Market St., and Francis R. Landolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aloys Landolf, of Beaver Dams, RD2, were united in marriage Saturday, June 22, in St. Mary's Church, by the Rev. Joseph F. McCarthy, assistant pastor.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Landolf, of Beaver Dams.

A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Later a reception for 50 guests was held in the newly-wedded couple's new home in Beckerton. Mr. and Mrs. Landolf then left for a week's motor trip.

The bride attended St. Patrick's School and Corning Free Academy and Mrs. Landolf attended St. Vincent de Paul's School and Northside High School. He is an employe of the Corning Glass Works.

Priests in Korea Lack Wine, Candles for Mass

New York — (NC) — The 450 missionaries and native priests of Korea are in danger of not being able to say Mass in the near future because of a dwindling supply of altar wine and candles, Capt. Maurice D. Stack, stationed with the U. S. Army in Chong-up, Korea, wrote in a letter to His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

The maximum quota is four candles and a bottle of wine a month, he said, and many priests do not receive that.

To assist the missionaries and faithful in Korea, an organization known as "Catholics for Korea" has been formed here with Cardinal Spellman as honorary chairman and the Rev. Laurent E. Voirin as secretary and treasurer. In cooperation with War Relief Services—National Catholic Welfare Conference, a shipment of altar wine, candles, medical and school supplies, babies' clothing and food is being collected for Korea.

Captain Stack related that a native Korean priest is ministering to the men stationed in Chong-up. However, he said, the priest "is in need of many religious things which cannot be obtained here, especially altar wine and candles." The Army captain said the Church receives great prestige from the fact that American soldiers attend the native Catholic services, adding that as a result great interest is being shown in Catholicism.

The Catholic faith entered Korea in 1777, by means of books and without missionaries, Captain Stack wrote, and in spite of cruel persecutions, the number of Catholics grew steadily.

K. of C. To Use Ads On Public Issues

New York — (NC) — Publication of paid advertisements on Catholic doctrine and the viewpoint of the Knights of Columbus on public questions in newspapers and magazines of general circulation has been authorized by the Supreme Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus.

The action was taken at a meeting of the board here. The objective of the campaign is to "meet the challenge that now threatens the destruction of Christian civilization with an international crusade of education and public discussion dedicated to the task of re-asserting and preserving man's God-given rights and the rights of self-government," it was announced.

The board directed a committee headed by Judge John E. Swift of Boston, Supreme Knight, to prepare a full program for the project to be presented to the International convention of the Knights to be held in August in Miami.

Daughter of Envoy To Cuba Joins Carmel

Morristown, N.J. — (NC) — Miss Jeanne Katherine Norweb of Cleveland, daughter of U. S. Ambassador to Cuba and Mrs. R. Henry Norweb, received the habit of the Discalced Nuns of the Order of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel at the Carmelite Monastery here. Miss Norweb will be known in religion as Sister Mary Joseph of the Sacrificial Host.

Miss Norweb attended schools in Switzerland and South America and was graduated at Vassar College in 1943. Before she entered the Carmel in October 1945, she was a student at the Fordham University School of Social Service in New York.

Education, Berlin Bound

Washington — (NC) — "My job will be to help straighten out the tangles which crop up in the policies of the Allied Military Government in relation to the Church," said Dr. James M. Egan, who has been appointed by the War Department as chief specialist officer of the education and religious affairs section, Allied Military Government. He expects to leave for Berlin about July 15.

WHCU in Program On Mother Cabrini

Ithaca — Station WHCU, Ithaca, will carry the Ave Maria Hour featuring dramatic highlights in the life of Blessed Mother Cabrini, first citizen of the United States to be proclaimed a Saint, on the day of her canonization Sunday, July 7, at St. Peter's in Rome. The broadcast will begin at 9 a. m.

Mother Cabrini founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Bringing a small band of her Sisters to New York City, she started the Sacred Heart Orphanage, then Columbus Hospital. With these charitable organizations firmly established, institutions were then founded in Denver, Los Angeles, Newark, Philadelphia, Seattle, Tacoma, New Orleans and other cities, including Chicago, where she became a citizen of the United States.

Her untiring labors ended in Chicago, December 22, 1917, and her bodily remains under the Altar of Cabrini High School, New York City. 3700 Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, throughout the world, now administer the works of charity established by the new citizen of Heaven, St. Francesca Cabrini.

The Ave Maria Hour is broadcast from WHCU every Sunday at 9:00 a. m.

Late Vocations' School Is Opened

Boston — (RNS) — A school of delayed vocations for ex-servicemen and others whose studies were interrupted by the war but who wish to prepare for entrance to Catholic seminaries will be opened here next September, it was announced by the New England Province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).

The school will offer accelerated and selected courses to permit candidates from 20 to 35 years of age to begin formal training for the priesthood as soon as possible. The institution will be under the direction of the Rev. George M. Murphy, S. J., recently discharged Army chaplain, and candidates will be prepared for both diocesan seminaries and those conducted by religious orders.

3,000 Adult Converts

Detroit — (NC) — Adult conversions in the Archdiocese of Detroit exceeded the 3,000 mark during the last eight months.

Fish-Shaped Church For Parish in Kansas City

Kansas City, Mo. — (RNS) — The St. Francis Xavier Catholic congregation on Kansas City's South Side is planning erection of an ultra-modern church and rectory, unique in its fish-shaped architecture, the Rev. John B. Gerst, S.J., pastor, said here.

The church will cost about $500,000. The congregation has under way a campaign to raise $200,000 to start construction as soon as materials and Civilian Production Administration approval can be obtained.

Explaining the church plans, one is struck by the fish-like shape of the proposed building. Father Gerst explained that the fish is one of the oldest liturgical symbols of Christianity.

The building has been designed to seat 900 persons. Outside, over the entrance, there will be a 85-foot tower, topped by a cross that will extend 100 feet above the ground level.

The church will include a mothers' room—a glass-enclosed and sound-proofed room, so that the stay—by small Mothers will be able to hear Mass in the novel room, yet the crying of their babies will not disturb the congregation.
