Sodalities of Our Lady The S.S.C.A.

By REV. ROY B. MURPHY Director of Sodalities

The Summer School of Catholic Action, under the auspices of the Sodality of Our Lady, began its sixteenth consecutive year in New Orleans on June 12. Held for one week following in Montreal, it is now being conducted in Chicago...

Complete information and literature on the school may be had by writing directly to the Queen's Work, 3742 West Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo. In years past large delegations from all parts of our diocese have attended the SSCA. Priests, Sisters and Socialists from parishes and schools have come back renewed in spirit and better equipped in the work of Catholic Action...

'ADOPT' G. I. GRAVES

Through the initiative of a young Dutch priest, Father Beach, of Margaret's Limburg Province, Dutch families have "adopted" the graves of 24,000 American soldiers buried in Holland. In this picture, a little girl is shown placing flowers on a grave. Other graves of the dead are also visible in the background.

National Council of Catholic Women Trojan-Horse Tactics

By Rev. Albert J. Shannon, Director

The theme of the greatest poems of antiquity, those of Homer and Vergil, centered around the Trojan war. A woman provoked this war: the Greeks launched 10,000 ships to destroy Troy because the Trojan Paris called Helen, the wife of the Spartan Menelaus, to elope with him. For nine years the Greeks besieged Troy, and for nine years mighty Troy repelled the besiegers. Despairing of subduing it by force, the resourceful Greeks resolved to resort to a stratagem...

On this point Pope Pius XI wrote the following: "In the beginning Communism showed itself as an enemy of the Church; but very soon it realized that it was thus alienating the people. It has, therefore, changed its tactics, and strives to entice the multitude by trickery of various kinds, hiding its real designs behind ideas that in themselves are good and attractive..."
