

Marriage Seen Sacred Triangle

New York — (NC) — The popular notion that marriage is a private affair was denied by the Rev. Hugh Collins, in his talk Sunday on the Hour of Faith program, but he admitted that marriage makes a triangle — "a sacred triangle of God, husband and wife."

Sodality of Our Lady

6 Memorable Days

By REV. ROY B. MORPHY, Diocesan Director for Sodalties

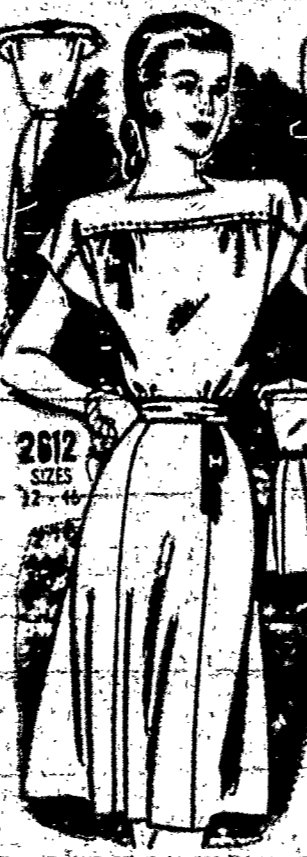

(Father Daniel A. Lord, S. J., National Organizer of the Sodality of Our Lady, takes over our Sodality column with a message about the SSCA.)

War days are over. People are building for peace. The Summer School of Catholic Action offers a Catholic program for the post-war world, which applies the principles of Catholic faith to the individual soul and to the larger problems of society.

The SSCA has been in operation for several years before it adopted its challenging slogan: "Six Days You'll Never Forget." It is rather surprising how many people at the close of the sessions have voluntarily commented on the complete truth of that statement. It is gratifying that year after year we receive, when the SSCA sessions are over, letters assuring us that the slogan is not too beautiful.

because the Summer School of Catholic Action continues year after year to face the problems of the day, to offer for their solution the ancient answers of Catholic truth, and to make those ancient answers as up-to-date as the problems themselves and as current as the day's headlines.

Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. C. W.

By REV. ALBERT J. SHANON

Today we have a new name for the good old fashioned N. C. C. W. organization. Originally, the N. C. C. W. was a purely social organization, but through the efforts of the late Cardinal Hayes, it became a purely religious organization.
