Blood, Blood, Blood!

However, they soon realized that they were not yet united enough. Defeat met the Revolution of 1848. So Marx set aside violence for a time; with might and main he strove to unite the workers of all nations; and then, again to strike. This union of many, many workers has been virtually so well effected, that Communism now feels well able to apply the technique of terror. So far in America it has in most cases confined itself to name-calling. For instance, if anyone dares to criticize Russia, he is a hopeless reactionary. If he mentions the fact that Russia is doing the very things that provoked World War II, he is a greedy war-monger. If he refers to her subjugation and enslavement of a dozen countries, he is a fascist. If he so much as hints that Russia has blocked every agreement and attempt at harmony in the Big Four, she is a Red-better! And so on and so on goes the list. However, if anyone becomes too obstreperous, or begins to make too much noise, then Communism will stop at nothing short of murder, as in the case of Trotsky. Incidentally, in the COURIER-JOURNAL, Victor Kravchenko's book "Chosen Freedom" is being featured weekly. This book unmasks the false face of Communism; it will do great damage to the cause since Kravchenko was an eye witness of what he wrote and a trusted official of the inner circle. But have you ever seen a photo of Kravchenko? The editors of "Columbia" magazine checked every associated press in America for his photo, and the same answer was received from all: "No photo available." Why? KRAVCHENKO KNOWS THAT THE LONGER HE LIVES UNKNOWN, THE LONGER HE LIVES. This "big stick" technique has had its desired effect. Because we have been afraid, we have been following like the three monkeys, a see-nothing, a hear-nothing, a speak-nothing policy in the case of Russia. It is high time we spoke out, not by words, BUT BY BALLOT. This November Communist candidates will be up for offices in America. We are duty bound to study these candidates; and to vote for the God-fearing ones ONLY. In this way we can stem the red tide inundating America. In the words of Jefferson, let us never forget that "eternal vigilance is the price of Democracy."

Christian Writers' Volume Published

Washington (APC) — The brilliant volume in the series, "Ancient Christian Writers," translations into English of the patristic literature of the early Church, is now available under the title, "The Epistles of St. Clement of Rome and St. Ignatius of Antioch," the Rev. Dr. John Quasten and Rev. Dr. Joseph C. Plumpe, of the School of Sacred Theology at the Catholic University of America, co-edited. The first volume, bound in blue and gold, contains the text of "Jesus Christ Conquers" in Greek lettering, was translated and annotated by the Rev. Dr. James A. Rieist, Jesuit scholar and educator of St. Louis University.

In pictures of the immaculate Conception the Virgin Mary is shown with her feet on the head of a serpent, which holds an apple in its mouth. What does this signify? The following lists of holy women and their best-known miracles are a bit mixed up. Straighten this out by placing the miracle against the name of the right saint: St. Agatha, the food she carried for the poor turned to roses in her cloak; St. Dorothy, provided seven shiploads of grain for Paris besieged by the French; St. Genevieve, converted a pagan youth of Greece by sending him a basket of fruit from Paradise; St. Clare, the virgin who saved Catania in Sicily from destruction in the eruption of Mt. Aetna; St. Isabella, carrying the St. Sacrament, the virgin who drove the Saracens from the convent walls at Assisi.

What did Jesus demand do with the 30 pieces of silver for which he had sold Jesus Christ, and to what had end did he come? The title of what Biblical character was changed in to a pillar of salt, and why? St. Theodora's "passion" (a) a sentence of stigmatization, (b) refusal of a Eucharist, (c) a protest against the performance of a marriage ceremony.

Starvation Stalks the Land! You Can Stop This Suffering

Thousands of children, old and infirm in Germany are threatened with starvation as you read this appeal. Picture, if you can, a small child dying—not in any of the ordinary ways—but simply because of the lack of a small amount of life-giving food, which you can supply at little cost to yourself.

If you help now, if you make a small contribution today, your kindness may be the means of saving that child's life. Your gift, no matter how small, may bring back the brightness to his dying eyes, or restore the spark of hope to the heart of some old or ill person.

PLEASE HELP NOW

Because the number of starving people in Germany is so great, because their needs are so many and so immediate, food and other relief supplies must be sent to them as quickly as possible. Christian Charity demands that we help.
