German Priests Freed From Czech Camps

Prague — (NC) — The representative of War Relief Services National Catholic Welfare Conference in Czechoslovakia, William J. Sullivan, has been successful in obtaining the release of a number of priests and ministers of German nationality from Czechoslovakia concentration camps and he is arranging for their transportation to their homes in Germany and Austria, it has become known here.

In cooperation with Charita, indigenous Catholic welfare organization, Mr. Sullivan was also instrumental in bringing about the release of civilians of German nationality including several Presbyterian ministers, who are also being sent to Germany. The American Military Permit Office in Prague helped in making arrangements for the transports.

Field Mass To Mark Victory Anniversary

Auburn — Veterans of two world wars and citizens of Auburn and Cayuga County will gather Sunday, August 18, in honor of the Feast of the Assumption and first anniversary of the end of World War II, to pay tribute to their war dead and offer thanksgiving at a military field mass on the lawn of St. Francis Assisi Church.

Rev. Bernard C. Newcomb, veteran chaplain of World War II, will offer Solemn High Mass assisted by the Rev. Adolph L. Gabbani, deacon, and the Rev. Bernard L. Hickey, subdeacon. The St. Francis choir will provide music.

Gold Star mothers of St. Francis Assisi parish as well as those from all other Auburn parishes have received a special invitation to attend.

Boy Scout Troop 26 of St. Francis, headed by Scoutmaster Frank DePaul, will also take part in the ceremonies.

Arranged by men of St. Francis parish and the Frank Calimeri Post 8, Italian-American War Veterans, of which Father Newcomb is chaplain, the services are expected to draw large crowds to the church lawn at the corner of Clark and Brookfield Place. Clark Street between Aurelius Avenue and Columbus Street will be blocked off to accommodate the throng.

March to Grounds

Preceding the Mass, officers and members of Calimeri Post will assemble at the Roman Club in Clark Street. Headed by their bugle and drum corps they will march to the church ground where massing of colors is scheduled. American Legion organizations and auxiliaries have been invited to attend the ceremonies.

The church committee in charge of arrangements includes Anthony Camardo, chairman; Steven Basile, co-chairman, and Alex Impeglia and Joseph Camardo.

On the Veterans Committee are Comdr. Philip Ciampaglia, Calimeri post chairman; Charles DeChick, co-chairman, and Anthony Nervlan, James Guerrera, Frank Scuccos, Mario Rossi, James DeMarzio, Alphonse Alongi and Larry Surace.

Geneva Notes

Geneva — George H. McGuire of 45 Copeland avenue underwent an operation at the Geneva General Hospital on Wednesday and is making satisfactory improvement.

Assumption Triduum Opens Today at St. Mary's Auburn

Auburn — Rev. Dennis W. Hickey will conduct the annual triduum honoring the Feast of the Assumption, titular feast of St. Mary's parish here, beginning this evening (Thursday Aug. 15).

Triduum devotions will open at 7:30 in the evening with service and sermon by Father Hickey, who is assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church.

Mass will be offered Friday and Saturday mornings at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock. Evening devotions consisting of prayers in honor of the Blessed Virgin, sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, will begin at 7:30.

Anniversary to Be Marked

Confessions will be heard on Thursday and Friday evenings for the general parish. Communion on Sunday morning when the 70th anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's parish will be observed by a Solemn High Mass at 11 o'clock closing the triduum.

Rev. Thomas Maher was the first pastor of St. Mary's Church and during his pastorate the parishioners assisted at Mass in a small wooden structure on Clark Street.

In 1866 Dr. Myles J. Loughlin was appointed the second pastor and it was during his years as pastor that the present church building was erected. Excavations for the present Church Building were begun June 1, 1870 and the corner stone was laid in the same year. The church was consecrated on May 1, 1877.

Rev. William Mulheron was the third pastor of St. Mary's and the large parochial school was built during his pastorate. The first school house was located on Clark Street near Washington.

The corner stone of the present school was laid in the year 1880 and the school was formally opened on January 7, 1881.

Rev. William Payne succeeded Father Mulheron in 1913 and Rev. John J. McGrath became pastor of St. Mary's in 1925. Rev. Dr. William L. Cowen has been pastor of St. Mary's since June 25, 1932.

Two performances are given every evening and three on Sunday.

Mammoth Portable Rink Installed At Armory For Skating Revue

First of the big time touring ice revues to schedule, Rochester dates will take the city's entertainment spotlight for 9 days at the Main St. Armory starting Monday night, Sept. 2, it was announced here today.

The show is the $200,000 1946-47 edition of "Holiday On Ice" presented under direction of the same management which staged the opulent "Skating Vanities of 1946," the roller skating show which drew thousands of enthusiastic spectators at the Armory early in May.

"Holiday On Ice" is presented on a mammoth 8100 square foot portable rink 120 by 70 feet in area, which is to be installed here during the five days preceding the show.

Heading a company of 100 are Murray Galbraith, 24-year-old Canadian featured across the United States as a figure skater, and Dorothy Goss, 17, winner of the national figure skating award at Lake Placid last year. 12 other solo artists and skating teams are included in the cast.

Mail orders for reserved seats are now being taken at Read's clothing store, 132 Main St. E., Rochester. Special arrangements are to be made for theatre parties and clubs.
